Maudie's Naughties

Pillow Talk

A couple is lying in bed. The man says, "I am going to make you the happiest woman in the world."

The woman replies, "I'll miss you . . ."

Third Time Not So Charming

A middle-aged couple has two stunningly beautiful teen-aged daughters. They decide to try one last time for the son they always wanted.

After months of trying, the wife becomes pregnant and sure enough, nine months later delivers a healthy baby boy. The joyful father rushes to the nursery to see his new son. He takes one look and is horrified to see the ugliest child he had ever seen.

He goes to his wife and says that there is no way that he can be the father of this child, "Look at the two beautiful daughters I fathered." Then he gave her a stern look and asks, "Have you been fooling around on me?"

The wife smiles sweetly and says, "Not this time"

Political Brags

Three presidential candidates board the same plane, heading to the primary election in Ohio. One turns to the others and says, chuckling, "You know, I could throw a $1,000 bill out of the window right now and make someone very happy."

The second one replies, "Well, I could throw ten $100 bills out of the window and make ten people happy."

Not to be outdone, the third replies, "Well, I could throw a hundred $10 bills out of the window and make a hundred people happy."

The stewardess overhears the conversation, rolls her eyes and whispers to the hostess, "If all three of them would throw themselves out of the window, it would make 21 million people happy."

Final Arrangements

A businessman on his deathbed calls his friend and said, "I want you to promise me that when I die you will have my remains cremated."

"And what, do you want me to do with your ashes," his friend asks?

The businessman says, "Just put them in an envelope and mail them to the IRS and write on the envelope, "Now . . . you have everything."

Tax Audit

Ma and Pa are unhappily conversing with the IRS auditor who has come to review their records. At one point the auditor exclaims, "We feel it is a great privilege to be allowed to live and work in the USA. As a citizen you have an obligation to pay taxes, and we expect you to eagerly pay them with a smile."

"Thank goodness," replies Pa, "We thought you were going to want cash!"

Hearing Problem

A young doctor is called in to observe a man in a mental hospital who puts his ear to the wall and listens all day long. The doctor watches the guy for a long while and finally decides to see what the guy is listening to, so he puts his ear up to the wall and listens. He hears nothing, so, he turns to the patient and says, "I don't hear anything."

"Yeah, I know," the man replies, "It's been like that for months!"

Sage Advice

Little Wilma confides to Ma, "I hate to go to weddings . . . every one of the great aunts and grandmothers in the family comes up to me, pokes me in the ribs and cackling, tells me, "You're next."

"Do the same thing to them at funerals," says Ma. "That'll stop all that nonsense."

Giving Directions

Uncle Slim has had too much to drink and is laying beside the road when a big, classy convertible comes rolling up The Hollow. A young man sticks his head out and says, "Hey, old man, what's the quickest way to Natural Bridge?"

"Are you driving or walking," asks Slim.

"Driving."

"I'd say that'd be the quickest way."

Lucky

Uncle Slim is sitting in a bar with one of his drinking buddies. "My mother-in-law is an angel," states the man. "You're so lucky," replies Slim. "Mine is still alive . . ."

A Woman's Prayer

Dear Lord,

I pray for Wisdom to understand my man;

Love to forgive him;

And Patience for his moods.

Because, Lord, if I pray for Strength,

I'll beat him to death.

AMEN

Carhartt Appoints Two New Directors

Hartness is Director of Quality Assurance; Long is Director of Quality – Raw Materials

Carhartt, America's premium workwear brand since 1889, today announced Lamar Hartness as its newly appointed director of quality assurance and Joe Don Long as its director of quality – raw materials.

Hartness is responsible for directing and developing quality requirements, processes, systems, procedures, and testing to ensure an efficient, effective and proactive Carhartt quality process. Long's focus is developing and executing fabric, trim, color, and finish quality strategies, as well as fabric testing. In this newly created role, he also will procure strong vendor relationships and ensure all raw materials meet Carhartt's quality and regulatory requirements.

"Over the course of his career, Lamar has proven himself a champion of global quality management and process development," Carhartt's Senior Vice President of Supply Chain William Hardy said. "We are excited to welcome Lamar to Carhartt and are confident he will be a valuable asset to the quality team."

Prior to Carhartt, Hartness gained 25 years of experience in various leadership roles and quality assurance positions at companies including Tiger J, QVC, Columbia Sportswear, Limited Brands and JC Penney. Hartness also has undergone Lean Six Sigma training.

Prior to joining the Carhartt team, Long spent 21 years in a number of leadership positions at Levi Strauss & Co. During his time there, he provided direction to the design, merchandising and product development teams and was responsible for global development of technically complex fabrics and finishes.

"Joe Don joins Lamar in playing a crucial role in continuing to build the quality team at Carhartt," Hardy said. "He is a talented leader with a deep understanding of what it takes to effectively manage quality processes."

Both Hartness' and Long's appointments are effective immediately.
