

FCCLA students Dakota French, Lee Mills, Shelby Danyeur and Kiely Flynn
 These students went to the FCCLA State Leadership Meeting in Louisville at the Galt House on March 29th-31st and participated in STAR Events (Students Taking Action for Recognition). Kiely Flynn and Lee Mills were in the Chapter in Review Portfolio; this event featured everything that the Estill County High School Chapter has done this year in an electronic form. Shelby Danyeur and Dakota French were in the Environmental Ambassador Event and had a presentation about the Bluegrass Army Depot and the effects of a chemical leak and how to protect your family. Both groups received a Super Star Rating (1st Place) and will move on to represent Estill County High School at the National FCCLA Leadership Meeting in San Diego, California in July. These students have been working on these projects since October; working after school and on snow days. Their advisers, Debbie Anders and Kristen Wilson are very proud of them.

ABOVE: Madeline Wasson of Broadway in Irvine shows off the bedspread she crocheted with the embossed names of her three grandchildren, Haleigh Grace Noble, Jax Kayne Hurst and Harlan Gauge Noble. It took her nearly 14 months to make the spread and she used 8,000 yards of crochet thread.

Ratisha Roberts and Jacob Puckett

Together with their families, Jacob Puckett and Ratisha Roberts invite you to celebrate their marriage, Saturday, April 16th, 2016 at half past five in the evening. The ceremony will be held at 1067 Wisemantown Road in Irvine, Kentucky. Dinner and dancing will follow at the Estill County Golf Course. No formal invitations will be sent out.

On youth turkey hunt weekend, Luke Fletcher, 12 years old, killed this 26-pound turkey on his Granad Jasper Pearson's farm at Waco. It had a 9.5 inch beard and one-inch spurs.

Christine Brandenburg, the county's finance officer, won the Bluegrass Alliance for Women's 2016 "County Impact Award" for Estill County at a dinner on March 22, 2016. There were two other nominees from Estill County. It was Christine and her husband's anniversary; so, she got this award and he was able to attend the dinner with her and the group.
