Old School Fathers Day

My boys told me weeks ago they wanted to take me fishing for Father's Day. Or maybe they wanted me to take them fishing for Father's Day! Either way we were going fishing no matter what.

Sunday after Church we loaded the herd up and went to Papaw Mike's pond. We dropped the boys off with Papaw. They started getting the old school cane poles ready. My wife and I took the rest of herd and got food for the fishing day.

We got back and the fishing began. The boys are fishing fools. On this trip, Brinley became a fishing fool like her brothers. They were catching fish right and left. Brinley was hanging tough with her brothers. A few times she gave them advice (which her Papaw had just given her) on how to catch more fish. My oldest, Bailey, spent her time trying to catch little sister Beth. Mom and Granny Karen sat in the shade with Baby Joel.

I took turns taking fish off hooks and trying to master my new fly rod. I got really good at getting fish off hooks. Still need a lot of practice with the fly rod. I did manage to catch a few fish.

Some old school cane poles made for a memorable Father's Day. I know Papaw Mike had a great day! It made his day that we left the boys with him to get the fishing started. I think he might get a lot more requests to go fishing.

I know the boys said they wanted to go fishing again with just Papaw. I asked Brinley if she wanted to go fishing again with me. She answered really quick that she would only go with Papaw. I think I might have lost my fishing buddies!

Psalm 127:3-5, "Lo, children are a heritage of the Lord: and the fruit of the womb is his reward."

"As arrows are in the hand of a mighty man; so are children of the youth."

"Happy is the man that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate."

I have been told I have a full quiver with six kids. I call it being truly, truly blessed. I have been truly blessed with a great earthly father. I can turn to my earthly father for anything. I like to call and talk with him. He always has time to listen. I know a lot folks might not have had a good earthly father or have lost their father. You do have a Heavenly Father you can turn to for anything. He is always ready to listen. I thank my Heavenly Father for allowing me to be an earthly father.

Until next week, get out and enjoy God's creation!

Under Cover
Little bird areas are a safe place for birds to feed, as well as fledglings. Shy birds like buntings feel safe under cover. My bird area is about 5 feet in circumference, under a lantana bush. There's always something going on. I love to watch that area the most.

Ikebana
("living flowers") is the disciplined Japanese art of flower arrangement. It often emphasizes other areas of the plant, such as its stems and leaves, and uses a minimalist style to emphasize shape, line, color and form. The container is a key element of the composition.
