In Memory of Dean Rader, born June 11, 1938, who had a birthday, June 11th

She was a sister loved by all, but one day she had to answer the call. Come home, my child, the Lord did say, Come home with me forever to stay.

Her troubles, her heartaches, are all over. One day soon, she will rest on Heaven's shore. She will meet with Mom & Dad Glendon, her family that's gone before.

She's at rest now. I believe if she could recall to say, she would say, "Get ready, children, for that Judgment Day. Don't wait too late, don't stray too far. Come, join me on Heaven's bright shore."

Loved and missed, Lillie Marcum

Dean Rader

In Loving Memory of Glendon Marcum, born June 21, 1936, passed away January 8, 2008.

If we could have kept you here, you would not of died. So many times I've missed you, so many times I've cried. My home is lonely since you had to go. How I miss you, no one will ever know.

I know you're resting now, somewhere beyond the blue. No one or nothing will ever take the place of you. I miss you so, my heart's been so sad. You were a loving husband, papaw and dad.

I know you are at a place of rest; so, I'll just have to stay here and do my best. Until God calls me home; then we will be at perfect rest. Then we will be reunited around God. Then softly we will be at home.

Loved and missed by wife, Lillie Marcum, and children, grandchildren, great grandchildren and many friends.

Glendon Marcum

In Loving Memory of Brother Beverly Arvin who passed from this life, April 1, 2016

God saw you getting weaker; so, he did what was best, he put his arms around you and said, "Come home, my child, and rest." You fought the fight, you ran your race, but in Heaven I know you'll find a resting place.

I miss you so much as time goes by, each time I think of you, I just sit and cry. Our home is sad since you're not here, but many memories we will always hold in our hearts so dear.

I loved you so much, but we had to part. God has you in his keeping, but I still have you in my heart. And there you'll always be, but I'll just wait for my call. Then we'll be united and one big family.

Wife Marinda Arvin, Carylton Arvin, grandchildren and great grandchildren.
