Effective Communication Strategies

Communication is more than just talking and listening - it's also about sending and receiving messages through attitude, tone of voice, facial expressions, and body language. As people with Alzheimer's disease and other dementias progress in their journey and the ability to use words is lost, families need new ways to connect. Join us to explore how communication takes place when someone has Alzheimer's, learn to decode the verbal and behavioral messages delivered by someone with dementia, and identify strategies to help you connect and communicate at each stage of the disease. The program will take place at the Richmond Senior Citizens Center, 1215 W. Main Street, Richmond, KY 40475, on Thursday, June 23rd, from 10:30-11:30 a.m. To register for this program, please call 1-800-272-3900. Registration is required.

Saturday, June 25th @ 2pm

Fire, Fire!

by BOB CASEY, preacher
Cornerstone Church of Christ
Bond Street at Camp Avenue in West Irvine

Have you ever noticed that when someone yells FIRE, it will get the attention of everyone in ear shot. So men are afraid of fire, but when we mention the word fire from God, many act as though there is no vengeance of fire coming upon the unrepentant of this earth.

In II Thessalonians 1:6-9, "Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you. And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from Heaven with his mighty angels in a flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God and obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, who will be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of his power."

Now friend, let me say this, if a passage such as this does not penetrate your conscience, then nothing else will. This hell of fire is given by God as a detriment to awaken the senses of all men. In Psalms 15:1-14 David wrote about the great power of God over his enemies and fire was his great power of destruction. Then in Matt. 13:39-42 here our Lord tells of a judgment day and furnace of fire awaiting all disobedient men. So hell of fire is a real place! Several places say that this hell of fire is an everlasting place (Matt. 18:8). In Matthew 25:41-46 says this punishment is everlasting, enduring forever, continual punishment from the presence of the Lord. Also there is no escape from there forever. In Luke 16:20-31 here our Lord gives us an example and a preview of the future of those who fail to prepare not to go there. Verse 26 reveals to us there will be no traffic from this fixed place. Only torment forever.

Also the lake of fire will be outer darkness, so all who so there will see as though they are the only one there. Matthew 8:12, Matthew 22:13, and Matthew 25:30 all these Jesus says in outer darkness. Then in II Peter 3:7 Peter says this place of fire is now reserved against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. Revelation 20:10 says that a strong angel from God shall take the devil and all his associates and cast them into this lake of fire and there they shall remain forever. Now again friend, if you fail to obey the Lord you will have all these for your neighbors forever.

But today there is hope for all sinners. In Acts 2, Peter and the other apostles were speaking to a crowd of the same men who previously had cursed, mocked, ridiculed, and then gave their voices to crucify the Son of God. But the mercies of God shone through to their giving them an opportunity to repent and obey the Gospel. I don't rightly know how many heard this message, but I do know that about three thousand did and were forgiven of their sins.

So again, if the Lord could forgive this crowd, surely you understand that our Lord will forgive you, if you will believe, repent, confess His name and be baptized for the remission of your sins, then your name can be added to the book of life. Rise up, and obey the Lord today!

Music has been called "the universal language." Wherever there are people there is music. It seems to come from the very nature of man. Every tribe on every continent has had musicians that make their own type of music. It is different from place to place, from being as irritating as fingernail on a chalk board to sounding like the "voices of angels."

The first "recognized" musician was Jabal who is mentioned in Genesis 4:21. He was the "father" of all who played the harp and flute. And music was very important to Moses and the Children of Israel. One of their earliest songs is introduced in Exodus 15:1 - "I will sing to the Lord, for He is highly exalted." Music has always played an important role in the history of Christianity. In fact, before the followers of Christ met to worship God the choirs of heaven sang on the night that Christ was born. And Jesus Himself led His followers in singing a hymn of praise before going to Gethsemane!

Pliny was commissioned by a Roman Emperor to investigate the belief and behavior of Christians. He reported, "They have a custom of meeting before dawn on an appointed day, and singing hymns to Christ."

Although music is everywhere, why is the music of God's children different? David said, "I will sing and make music!" immediately after he found a new steadfastness, or confidence, in God's grace. That's why!

When hearts are at peace with God, people sing!
