 AT LEFT: The Estill County 4-H Program had three young men represent us at State Teen Conference this year. During this event youth stay on the University of Kentucky's campus in dorms and participate in classes and leadership activities that help prepare them to become leaders in the community. Well done to all three of you. Shown left to right are: Hunter Walters, Logan Napier, Brennan Rogers

Estill 4-H'er Matt Hager has earned a spot on the prestigious Kentucky Performing Arts Troupe. They will kick off their tour "soundtrack of my life" at the state fair, spend time performing, teaching workshops, and recording both in Kentucky and Nashville, TN. Congratulations to Mr. Hager for being Estill County's first Troupe Member! For anyone else who is interested in trying out for the Kentucky Performing Arts Troupe for its next session, contact us at 723-4557.
