

Irvine Police & Sheriff's Dept. activity log

Steven Chaney, 46, of Marbleyard Road, Irvine was charged with five counts of wanton endangerment of a police officer on August 22.

Capt. Adrian McKinney said that Chaney pulled a knife on a deputy jailer who was on the sidewalk outside the kitchen jail around 7:53 p.m.

The citation states that Chaney started toward the jailer with the knife but pulled it back upon the officer's arrival. It adds that Chaney had gone to the lobby door and was holding the knife out to the front.

McKinney said that Chaney would not drop the knife for about ten minutes. He reportedly stated he needed help to get off cocaine and ice, then he dropped the knife and surrendered.

• Tyler Gibbs, 23, of Richmond, was charged with wanton endangerment first degree and possession of a handgun by a convicted felon.

IPD has been investigating since early August shots being fired into a residence at 275 Main Street. The citation states that it has been determined that Gibbs was the one who shot into the residence.

He was at the apartment with two women and two other men. The two women have been charged with attempting to enter the apartment, but the residents barricaded the door.

When the women returned to the vehicle, a 2002 black Honda, all five left the scene. Officer John Sturniolo said that as the vehicle, left, shots were fired into the residence multiple times.

He said the two women said that Gibbs was the front seat passenger and had fired the pistol. IPD recovered a .25 Phoenix Arms pistol, 15 live rounds, and Gibbs' identification cards from the vehicle.

• Darrell E. Stamper Jr., Berea, 40, of Berea, was charged August 26 with operating on a suspended or revoked license by Capt. Adrian McKinney. Stamper was involved in a collision on River Drive.

• Tyler Combs was served an arrest warrant by Officer John Sturniolo for Estill County on August 29. Combs, 26, is a resident of Meadowlark Bottom, Irvine.

• Officer Jeremy Hamm served an arrest warrant August 23 on Frank Dailey, 34, of Somerset.

• Jacquelyn K. Brandenburg, 38, of Winston Road, Irvine was charged with public intoxication, first degree on August 26 by Capt. Adrian McKinney.

The officer received a call to go to the Family Dollar on Winchester Road due to an endangered female sitting in her vehicle around 9:08 a.m. and masturbating in public.

Upon arrival, the officer said the woman was outside the vehicle and looking through the back seat. When he approached her, she asked if she should fasten and zip her pants. The report says she failed field sobriety tests.

• Officer Sam Hensley served a bench warrant August 25 on Randel C. Jones, 32, of Red Lick Road, Irvine. District Judge William Leach issued the warrant because Jones failed to appear in court for an arraignment on a charge of theft by deception - cold checks.

• Bench warrants were served on 11 individuals on August 23 and 26 by the Estill County Sheriff's Department.

Bailiff Glenn Carroll served warrants on Mark D. Durbin, 54, of North Madison; Amy S. Thomas, 33, of Webb Road; Winston Hockensmith of W. Cedar Grove Road; and Preston Stepp, of Broadway.
