THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

Why do You stand afar off, O Lord?
 Why do You hide Yourself in times of trouble?
 In pride the wicked hotly pursue the afflicted;
 Let them be caught in the plots which they have devised.

PSALM 10: 1 & 2

angelic visitations and finally in and through His incarnate Son, Jesus.

The fact that God speaks directly to us is a basic difference between Himself and idols. David made a simple, straightforward, significant statement: "...You, O God are strong...You, O God are loving." David drew a clear distinction between his God and other gods. His God was involved in the lives of His people in guiding and guarding them, in protecting and providing for them.

We could never enjoy or understand, recognize or appreciate the love of God if He did not demonstrate His power, strength and might. We see His strength and faithfulness in the many victories He gave David over his foes. And we can understand the depth of His love and mercy when He forgave David for his sins.

Then you will call,
 and the Lord will answer;
 you will cry for help,
 and He will say:
 Here am I.
