Spring Time in Kentucky

Many are the flowers, with colors so bright;
But there are others, that are dark and light.
We enjoy the birds, this is so true;
Beautiful colors of red, white and blue.
The blue birds arrive, early in the Spring;
Getting ready for a family, and teaching them to sing.
Mom and Dad sit on a wire, high above the ground;
They fly down to get it, as soon as food is found.
Feeding their babies, day after day;
Until they are grown up, and going their own way.

seeds of Hope

It was the end of our summer break and my roommate and I were returning for our final year in seminary.

After driving several miles I asked, "Fritz, why is the sun shining in our eyes when we are supposed to be going west?"

Suddenly he realized that instead of turning right at the end of our driveway, he had turned left and we were going east and not west. Realizing our mistake, we laughed at ourselves, turned the car around and headed in the right direction.

No one can travel in the wrong direction and expect to reach the right destination. A wise Psalmist once wrote, "May God be gracious to us and bless us and make His face to shine on us so that Your ways may be known on earth, Your salvation among all nations."

God has made His wants known through Jesus Christ, His Son who said, "I am the way!" Every person on earth is going "somewhere" but if they refuse His "where" they will end up "nowhere" and spend eternity in hell.

Some of those we know are traveling the "Religion Roadway." They have respect for what is sacred but have not accepted God's Son as their Savior and made Him their Lord. They are depending on "something" to get them "somewhere" in life but do not know that there is "Someone" who can save them and give them eternal life.

Everyone we know is on their way going somewhere depending on something to get them some place. But it is our responsibility to show them the right way - His way!

Instructions to Elders (1 Peter 5:1-4)

1 The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed; 2 Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; 3 Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. 4 And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.
