Give blood, save a Kentucky patient's life this winter

The need for blood never stops, even during winter months when donations typically decrease because of bad weather and colds and flu.

This month, Kentucky Blood Center (KBC) is encouraging Kentuckians to roll up their sleeves, donate blood and help a Kentucky patient. Those who register to give blood at the drive below will receive a gray, long-sleeve KBC T-shirt.

Estill County Community will be having a blood drive on Saturday, January 13, 2018, from 8 a.m. - 1 p.m. at the First Christian Church in the Fellowship Hall at 270 Main Street in Irvine.

To schedule your life-saving appointment or to get more information, call 800.775-2522, ext. 3758. As always, walk-ins are also welcome.

Blood donors must be at least 17-years-old (16 with parental consent), weigh at least 110 pounds, be in general good health, show a photo I.D. and meet additional requirements. Sixteen-year-old donors must have a signed parental permission slip, which can be found at kybloodcenter.org.
