Is Jesus Coming Again

by BOB CASEY, preacher
Cornerstone Church of Christ
70 Bond Street at Camp Avenue in West Irvine

This question is one that should stay in the minds of all men, because when he does return, there will never be anything to compare this day unto.

First of all, yes he is coming back from Heaven because he promised that he would. In John 14:1-6, he said this would happen. Then this statement is verified by the two angelic witnesses in Acts 1:11, "... this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven" Do we need any further proof?

When is he coming?

In Matthew 24:44, "... for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh." Luke 12:40 says the same thing.

What is the purpose of his coming again? To make real the "day of Redemption," Ephesians 4:30. Then in Hebrews 9:28, "So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation."

Sadly, not every one will be redeemed; neither will they be recipients of salvation, simply because they failed to render obedience unto his will. Read Hebrews 5:8-9.

So, what will be the response of the unsaved when our Lord returns? First, there will be much prayer made, but to no avail. This leads to continued confessing his name. There will be a great outpouring of remorse. All will be seeking mercy whom showed no mercy. There will be much crying and weeping of the worse kind, wailing in despair, gnashing of teeth, seeking places to hide.

Revelation 6 says, when the trumpet sounds and the voice of the archangel sounds, the skies will be rolled back as a scroll, there will appear our saviour upon his throne and every unsaved person without regard to whom they may be, will seek for refuge among the dens and caves to hide themselves, even begging for the mountains to fall upon them so they may be hidden from the face of the only one set to save them.

But the day of salvation's opportunity will be forever gone, for this is a day of eternal wrath. And according to Christ's own words in Matthew 7:13-14, most of the world's population will not go there.

So, what should one be doing in the meantime? Luke 12:40 says, "Be ye therefore ready also..." watch, be on guard, be looking for him.

This all can do! By obeying his commands to believe on him. To turn from your sinful practices in repentance, by confessing your faith in him as the Son of God, by being baptized for unto the remission of your sins; then living faithfully unto death.

So, you do not have to be among the unsaved, by obeying you have the hope of Heaven abiding upon you. If you do not wish to do this, you can decide not to, but you will be wishing throughout all eternity that you had made the right choice.

Strong lesson? You bet, but this is the truth. Read 2 Corinthians 5:11.

PSALM 23:2-4

He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters. He refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

The Fellowship of Believers (Acts 2:42-47)

42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers. 43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. 44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common; 45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. 46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

what is in our best interests. Consider the case history of Israel. The psalmist wrote, "My people would not listen to me; Israel would not submit to me. So I gave them over to their stubborn hearts."

A reader recently wrote and asked a question that many of us ask at one time or another: "If there is a God, and if He is a good and loving God, why does He allow sin and suffering?"

A simple answer is that God gave each of us the opportunity and responsibility to make and live with the consequences. But there is a liability that came with this freedom. Even though we can make a poor choice, God will not interfere with our freedom to make it. Unfortunately we all live with the choice that Adam and Eve made: it introduced sin into the world and we have to live with their choice.

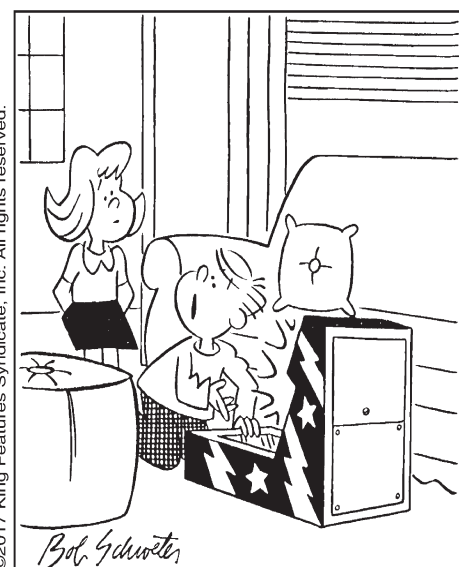

But it seems that we all make decisions that are not in keeping with Without choice there could be no love or liberty, grace or goodness, caring or compassion. We are free to choose what is right and righteous or what is destructive and devastating. This is true of individuals and nations alike. We have sin and suffering because of wrong choices.

And why do we make wrong choices? Again our psalmist has the answer: "If my people would but listen to me... I would subdue their enemies."

Whenever we walk in our own ways, individually or as a nation, we will suffer from our "enemies" - whatever would defeat or destroy us. God allows us that choice.
