Irvine resident, Ava Hale, daughter of Shaun and Kim Hale, competed in the U.S. Amateur Nationals this weekend in Gatlinburg, TN. Ava and her 3rd grade Central Kentucky Sparx team came away Champions, beating a very tough Tennessee Fury team by one at the buzzer. Winning 26-25.

Last Wednesday, six members of the 2017 Lady Engineers Softball Team participated in the Section 4 Showcase in Salyersville, KY. This annual showcase brings together the brightest stars from the four southeastern Kentucky regions (13,14,15,16) for a round robin style tournament. Top players from each region get to show their talents to numerous college scouts in attendance. This tournament is possible through the efforts of the Kentucky High School Softball Coaches Association. As you can see, Estill County was well represented with six players on the 14 woman roster. Left to right- McKinley Meek, Kaylee Covey, Sarah Wiseman, Abby Winkle, Taylor Wiseman, Lindsey Wood. Great job ladies!!! (Mike Wiseman photo)

Taylor Wiseman, senior first baseman from the 2017 Estill County Lady Engineers will participate in the Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star Game on June 28th in Nashville, TN. Taylor was selected to the East Senior team for the annual East/West All Star Game that was played on June 17-18 at University of Cumberlands. Coaches selected seniors from each team to participate in the all star game. Kentucky leads the series 6-5. Congratulations Taylor!!! Go show them how a Lady Engineer plays ball. AT LEFT: The Estill County Mid Summer Classic was held this past weekend at Kiwanis Park in Ravenna, KY with 28 teams from five different age divisions in the field. The Lady Neers would pick up top hardware in the 12U division with a 5-0 record throughout the tournament. The Lady Neers would defeat Chaos, another Estill Co. team on the rise, in the championship game. Those Estill ladies sure know how to play some ball. Left to right, front row: Emma Winkle, Katie Johnson, Savannah Newton, Lauren Farmer. Second row: Coach Lynn West, Aaliyah Edstrom, Neesa West, Henlee Hunter, Kylie Rose, Kylee Tudor, Coach Chad Hunter. (Mike Wiseman photo)
