

OBITUARIES (Continued)

Saturday, July 22, 2017

C.T. "Cedar" Williams III, 61

Clarence "C.T." "Cedar" Williams III, age 61, husband of Kim Newton Williams, passed away Saturday morning, July 22, 2017, at the Marcum-Wallace Hospital in Irvine, Kentucky, after a long illness.

Mr. Williams was a native of Estill County, born September 28, 1955, a son of the late Clarence "Bimbo" Williams and the late Bertheda Mays Williams. He was a retired brakeman for CSX railroad, working there over thirty years. He was a member of the Irvine United Methodist Church, an avid fisherman, and a University of Kentucky Wildcat basketball fan.

Survivors other than his wife Kim, include his son, Logan Williams; his daughter, Erica Duty (Jason); his sister, Rita Fore (Blayne); and his grandchildren: Lane Snowden and Mason Duty.

Services will be held at 11:00 a.m., on Wednesday, July 26, at the Irvine United Methodist Church with Pastor Donald Hatton officiating. Friends may call from 9:00 a.m. until service time,

C.T. Williams III

Wednesday, at the church. Burial will follow in the Oakdale Cemetery.

Friends also called after 6:00 p.m., Tuesday, July 25th at Lewis-Abner Home for Funerals.

Pallbearers will be Earl Kirby, Steve Tipton, Mike Sparks, Mark Birchfield, Marty Newton, and Beatle Lisle.

The honorary pallbearers will be Red Williams, Jerry Parsons, Jonathon Fore and John Lisle.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked for donations to the St. Jude's Hospital. <LewisFH.com>

Escaping the Heat

by BOB CASEY, preacher
Cornerstone Church of Christ
70 Bond Street at Camp Avenue in West Irvine

Just today, I heard a weatherman repeat the phrase, "Try to escape the heat if you can." Well, it was in the nineties yesterday and was also that today, so, tomorrow, we are told of the same. So, what is one to do if they do not like, or cannot stand, the heat. President Harry S. Truman's favorite saying was, "If you can't stand the heat, stay out of the kitchen." Of course, this was said regarding all the awesome responsibilities of the office.

So, today, it is hot, and what are we doing to try to avoid it? Many just stay out of sight, remaining indoors. Others may seek a shade tree, hoping for a good breeze to blow by. Others also may purchase air conditioner equipment to cool their dwelling. And, so on and on we go in an attempt to make this life as comfortable as we can. But, I am an old timer now, so I can remember the days when air conditioning was limited to a circulator fan of some type. Many didn't have them because in great parts of our country, they didn't have electricity to run one if we had it. Man alive, do we have it made today! Young people only laugh when we tell of such times, but it's not their fault, for they were born into this time.

Now, after all this rambling and reminiscing, many of you who read this article weekly, probably know where I am heading with it. Then, of course, as a Gospel preacher, I want to use this information to promote the reality of a time to come when you will not be able to control the heat that so many unfortunate, disobedient folks will share at the end of this world. The word of God informs us of such a time in many places, such as Matthew 13:42, here called a "furnace." In Matthew 18:8, this fire is said to be "everlasting." Mark 9:44, it is said that fire is "not quenched" (satisfied). So, one will not just disappear in a cloud of vapor and smoke as some preach. In 2 Thessalonians 1:8, it says the fire will be "taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ." Even all this world will be destroyed with fire, according to 2 Peter 3:7-12, causing it to dissolve or melt.

A few minutes of reading in Revelation 20:10-15, will and should scare the unprepared, the unrepentant sinner to incline his ear to hear what our Lord is saying. In Revelations 21:8, here he tells us about the unbelievers, the fearful, the abominable, murderers, whose mongers, sorcerers, idolators and all liars shall have their part in the Lake of Fire, called brimstone, which is the second death.

Dear Readers, surely you would not want to end up in such a place with all the worst of mankind, but as surely as and if you waste your opportunities to repent and obey the Gospel, this will be your fate, the Bible declares it! Don't be liken to the too-late man whose story is given in Luke 16:19-31. He wasted his opportunity to live for the Lord and found himself in a torment of fire. You know it has been very hot today and I have consumed much fluid in an attempt to cool myself off. But the man in the story only begged for one drop and he did not receive it. Scary, you bet it is and the Lord wants it to be, because it is real!

Visit with us at Cornerstone. We talk about such things in church every Lord's day at 9:45 a.m.

Sincerely, Bob Casey, 1-859-369-4165.

seeds of Hope

A group of visitors once asked an eighty-two-year-old his age. After answering their question he said, "I'm going to live until I die. And then I'm going to live forever!"

Is it possible that he had Psalm 84 in mind and was reflecting on the words of the psalmist: "They go from strength to strength - or they make their way - till each appears before God."

God expects us to care for our bodies - He created them and entrusted them to us to do His work well. The story is told of two camels who deeply loved their masters.

While carrying their cargoes across the desert one decided that he would eat little so he could save his master money. He soon became weak and disoriented and thieves took advantage of his master when he died - beating him and taking the cargo. The other cared for both his master and his strength. He ate wisely and passed triumphantly across the desert.

We weaken ourselves spiritually by not nourishing ourselves with "soul-food" - God's Word. Because God made us for Himself, we must bring His life into our life through the Word of Life - Christ our Lord. He alone can satisfy the hunger in our hearts and the longing in our souls.

Jesus met these needs when He said, "I am the Bread of Life! No one coming to me will ever be hungry again. And those who believe in Me will never thirst, either."

Age does not matter. Life does. And life begins with the Lord. Believe in Him! He will nourish body and soul.

Peter Speaks in Solomon's Colonnade (Acts 3:14-16)

But ye denied the Holy One and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; 15And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof we are witnesses. 16And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.
