Drug March/Resource Fair

Helping Hands Outreach and Westcare will be presenting their annual drug march and resource fair on Saturday, September 23, 2017, 9:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. at the Estill County Fairgrounds, 38 South Irvine Road.

Care and other local community organizations are assisting Helping Hands in bridging gaps to build stronger families and communities.

HHO has been reaching out to the community for more than seven years to provide services in our community. Primarily, Helping Hands has focused on needs of families pertaining to food, shelter, and clothing. For our annual event this year, Helping Hands Outreach and Westcare have partnered together to present the Estill County Drug March and Community Resource Fair. Our partnership will allow us to help address additional issues related to substance abuse and recovery.

This event is ENTIRELY FREE to the community and includes free food, kids inflatables, many local organizations presenting the resources they provide to the community, and special guest speaker former football player Jared Thomas as he shares his story of addiction, recovery, and career as a substance abuse counselor.

We want to thank the Agency for Substance Abuse Prevention (ASAP) and Kentucky River Foothills Head Start for their compassion and generosity in sponsoring this event. They, along with West-

Drug March is at 10 am, Jared will speak at 11 and the event will close at 2 pm. We welcome you to join us to find a resource, or share the services your group provides to the community. If you are interested in sharing your services, please visit Helping Hands Outreach FB page for vendor registration. You may also call 606-975-3775.

The event is sponsored by Kentucky River Foothills Head Start and the Agency for Substance Abuse Prevention.
