

Revive River Drive

Tribune Photo/Cathy Dawes

Participants of the Color Run finished up the events by having a color splash on Broadway.

Winners of the 2K Color Walk/Run are Will Isfort – 1st place, Andrew Elam – 2nd place, and Kristen Osborne – 3rd place. Tribune Photo/Cathy Dawes

The Estill County Middle School cheerleaders sold bags of cotton candy on Saturday night during the 6th annual Revive River Drive. Tribune Photo/Cathy Dawes

Profitt Reunion at Shelter Valley

Profitt Reunion Youth Hat Contest Participants

Winners were Mariela Profitt (held at left), prettiest hat, Hector Profitt (#4 front), ugliest hat, and Logan McIntosh (#12, red, white & blue hat in front), most unusual hat.

Profitt Reunion Adult Hat Contest Winners

Left to right: Lisa Gregory (tree hat), ugliest hat; Javen Lambert (tortoise hat), most unusual hat; and Emily McIntosh, prettiest hat.

Profitt Reunion Afghan Winner
Sabrina Lambert

Profitt Reunion Afghan Winner
Sue Lane Barnett

Burn Out Arrest

Continued from Page 1

A citation states that he became aggressive toward officers.

He was placed under arrest which he allegedly resisted.

The citation states he began to yell profanities in the jail parking lot, causing a public disturbance.

Chief Smith charged Mays with disregarding a traffic control device, speeding 26 mph or greater (work zone), fleeing or evading police, first degree (motor vehicle), wanton endangerment, first degree, and reckless driving.

Officer Cloyd cited Mays for assault third degree of a police officer, resisting arrest, and disorderly conduct.

An outstanding warrant for failing to pay a fine was also served on Mays.

He was found guilty in January of operating a motor vehicle under the influence, failure of owner to maintain required insurance, and terroristic threatening, third degree. Charges of disorderly conduct, failure to register transfer of vehicle, reckless driving, menacing, and four counts of wanton endangerment were merged.

Mays was lodged in Three Forks Regional Jail in Beattyville.