

Carhartt's "Day of Giving"

The Carhartt team had an incredible Day of Giving! Working with the Irvine and Ravenna fire departments, over 40 volunteers from Carhartt partnered with the Red Cross to reach local in-need communities. At the end of our day, the preliminary counts show over 115 homes were in need and over 200 alarms installed! For a rainy, snowy, cold Tuesday this is an incredible success! Actually, it's a huge success even for the nicest of weekend days! A huge thank you to Philip Thomas and Morgan Kirby of Carhartt for rallying their troops and partnering with the Red Cross! Mary Summers of The Red Cross said "These teams were incredible and we are looking forward to working with them in the future!" Thanks to both Irvine and Ravenna fire departments, the wonderful mayor of Ravenna, Estine Tipton, for hosting us for lunch, and to the incredible Red Cross team that helped lead the day.
