Arrest made after fleeing from KSP

a driver by KSP Trooper Ty Robinson.

The trooper said he was traveling on KY 52 when he saw a vehicle approaching the stop sign at the intersec-

He said he pulled over and watched the 2001 Impala pull out of Pea Ridge 16 where he pleaded not-Road without a turn signal. It immediately turned left onto return for a preliminary hear-Rice Station Road.

Robinson said he made a U-turn and attempted to $10,000 in this case. catch up with the Impala. back of a house.

He noticed the driver's into the wood lines.

He gave chase stating, "State Police. Stop Running," but the man continued to flee.

small creek, Robinson said the man fell to the ground and surrendered his hands.

He was identified as women. Shawn Allen Hardy, 38, of Hardy Road, Irvine.

small baggie of suspected arrears in child support. methamphetamine and a second degree (on foot), held Feb. 21.

A traffic stop on Thursday possession of a controlled night resulted in the arrest of substance, first degree and first offense, possession of a controlled substance, second degree, operating on a suspended or revoked operator license, display or possession of a cancelled or fictition of Pea Ridge and KY tious operator license, and failure to surrender revoked operator license.

Hardy was arraigned Feb. guilty to call charges. He will ing on Feb. 21.

His bond was set at Trooper Robinson also He said the vehicle made an served two arrest warrants abrupt left turn into a drive- on Hardy, each of them way that circled around the charging Hardy with flagrant non-support.

Each of the warrants states door open and a man fleeing that Hardy had failed to pay court ordered child and has not made a payment since March 27, 2015.

One of the warrants said that Hardy is in arrests As the chase went over a of $14,455.39. The other states that he is in arrears of $22,934.09. Two child support is owed to two different

Hardy's bail has been set at $5,000 cash on each of During a search, Trooper those warrants. Any bond Robinson said he located a money will be applied to the

He also entered not-guilty suboxone strip n a package. pleas to flagrant non support Hardy was charged with on Feb. 16. Preliminary hearfleeing or evading police, ings on those charges will be

Through traffic was blocked on Broadway during Saturday's "stand-off" on Hood Avenue. The home of the deceased was near the Broadway intersection.

Couple found dead at Irvine residence

Continued on Page 1

The couple was identiand his wife, Barbara, age for autopsies.

a pastor at several Eastern release the official cause of Kentucky churches.

In recent years, he led the singing at White Oak Church of God.

housewife.

The Williamses were the parents of two children, but their daughter, Rebecca died mation appears on page 6.

of cancer as a teenager.

Chief Smith said that the fied as Charles Thomas two bodies were sent to the "Tommy" Williams, age 71, medical examiner's office

Smith said his depart-Williams had retired from ment is continuing the in-Trane and he had also been vestigation. They will not death for the couple until they get the state medical examiner's report.

A joint funeral is sched-His wife, Barbara, was a uled for Tommy and Barbara Williams for today at White Oak Church of God.

Complete obituary infor-

A wooden cross says "Almighty God" and is displayed in front of the home of Tommy and Barbara Williams on Hood Avenue.

arrests 3 at Turner Ave. residence

Two Irvine women were ing as Officer Colton Lewis attempted to serve an arrest warrant on a man.

The officer said as he knocked on the door at 294 Turner Ave., Trailer #1, he noticed Kevin Jordan run from the door into the bed-

Deanna Smith, 47, opened the door and refused to allow Officers Lewis and Brian ing profanities and making

She reportedly said there When Officer Lewis attempted to enter, she pushed him on the chest and his his arrested early Friday morn- cuted a front palm heel strike into. to get Smith to comply. She was placed under arrest and charged with assault third degree of a police officer.

Officer Brian Cloyd said that Verneda L. Adams, 45, of Hood Avenue, Irvine, was in the trailer while they were to lay her on her side to betattempting to make an ar-

He said she stated shoutthreats to the officers.

were no men in the residence. rest, she tried to pull away hindering prosecution or apment, second degree. from officers and screamed, prehension, second degree. "Someone call 911."

Smith began yelling for help and for someone to call 911. While outside and on set at $10,000 cash. the ground, the officer said ehs became uncontrollable menacing, resisting arrest, and yelled louder.

Officer Cloyd attempted ond degree. reportedly kicked him using her left foot on his left thigh.

Smith was also charged

Officer Lewis then lo- Estill District Court on Frileft thigh with the front door. cated Jordan in the bedroom day. She pleaded not-guilty Officer Lewis said he exe- that he had seen him running to the four charges. She will return to district court on Feb. 21 for a preliminary hearing.

Bail for Smith has been Adams was charged with and disorderly conduct, sec-

The arrest warrant issued ter control her, but Smith by Judge Michael Dean was served on Jordan, 36, by Officer Lewis. with menacing, disorderly sion last August for criminal the parking lot of Citizens damage to the door skin and When placed under ar- conduct, second degree, and possession of a forged instru- Guaranty Bank.

> Smith was arraigned in dan had violated the terms of his release.

Man charged with assault of police officers, Friday

On Friday afternoon, an

Sgt. John Sturniolo said Judge Dean said that Jor- that Dale Conrad, 42, of N. Madison Avenue, Irvine had a strong odor of alcoholic beverages on him.

> When he regained consciousness, the officer said that Conrad became aggressive toward EMS personnel and law enforcement.

The citation states that Conrad attacked and came toward officers as he was being placed in the cruiser, using his feet and hands as weapons.

It adds that Conrad kicked Sgt. Sturniolo in the left ribcage on two occasions and kicked Deputy Russell Morris in the knee area.

Sturniolo said that Con-Irvine man was arrested rad broke free and used his on five charges after he head to ram the door of Jordan was given diver- was found unresponsive in the K-9 unit, which caused decals.

> Conrad was transported to Marcum & Wallace Hospital for medical attention.

Sgt. Sturniolo stated that Conrad had a prescription bottle of hydrocone in his pocket which was filled on Friday. He added that 23 of the 30 hydrocodone pills were missing from the bot-

Conrad was charged with assault third degree of a police officer, criminal mischief, first degree, menacing, disorderly conduct, second degree, and resisting

Conrad's bail was set at $5,000 cash.

nree sentenced

Three defendants waived their indictments to the Estill County Grand Jury recently to be placed on the Rocket Docket.

Those who are sentenced via Rocket Docket spend less time in jail. They are usually required to participate in a drug rehabilitation Hollow Road, Irvine, had tes' plea and a diversion program, undergo drug testing, and perform community service.

Heather Estes, 35, of most likely would have been indicted for receiving stolen chandise from Dollar Genproperty over $500.00.

That charge is a felony, years in prison.

The waiver of an indictment states that she had in her possession on Decem- in Estill Circuit Court on ber 26 jewelry which had February 1 before the Hon- December 2, Arvin drove at been reported stolen.

Susan Stepp, 27, of Dark been charged with complicity to theft by unlawful taking over $500. Her waiver stated she acted in complicover $700 worth of merinto the plea agreement.

The charge is also a Class five years in prison.

Estes and Stepp appeared first degree. orable Michael Dean.

The judge accepted Esorder was ordered. She was also sentenced per the plea.

Stepp also entered a plea and was sentenced. A diver-Shallow Creek Road, Irvine, ity with others to shoplift sion order was also entered

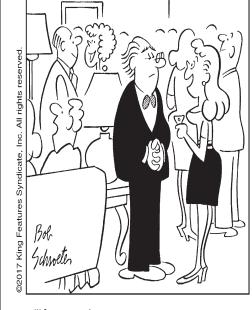

Details of the diversion

Calvin D. Arvin, 39, of punishable by one to five D felony, for which Stepp Webb Road, Irvine, waived could have served one to an indictment on two counts of wanton endangerment,

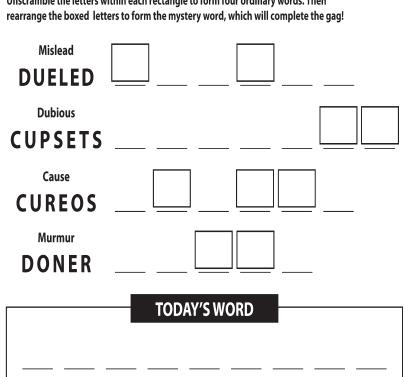

> The waiver states that on high rates of speed after an officer had executed blue lights and wantonly engaged in extreme disregard for others while driving at high rates of speed.

> Arvin pled guilty on the February 15 Rocket Docket. Judge Dean accepted his plea and ordered probation #### eral Store on December 17. orders were not available. before entering sentencing. An Irvine woman was said he located seven clear arrested early Sunday morn- baggies of a clear white subing and charged with drug Unscramble the letters within each rectangle to form four ordinary words. Then trafficking. rearrange the boxed letters to form the mystery word, which will complete the gag! KSP Trooper Casey Caudill assisted Deputy Russell Mislead Morris on a drug tip at 41 Front Street. DUELED The trooper said he, the use.

"I hear you're a — what's the name of your group?"

IPD charges woman with selling methamphetamine

deputy, and Irvine Officer with the homeowner who stated she did not want any to search the residence for drugs or drug paraphernalia.

According to the citation, Lorene N. Young, 59, had been staying at the residence, keeping in one corner of the living room and sleeping on the couch.

During a search of at $10,000 cash. Young's area, the trooper stance, which field tested positive for methamphet-

The citation states that she admitted the meth was hers for her own personal

The trooper charged her Brian Cloyd made contact with drug paraphernalia buy/possess, possession of a controlled substance, first drugs in her residence. She degree and first offense and also gave verbal consent trafficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense.

The trooper said he determined that she was attempting to sell the methamphetamine due to the individually packaged baggies.

Young's bail has been set