Always Be Prepared

This past weekend my oldest son went turkey hunting with a good friend of mine. They saw several turkeys on their way for an afternoon hunt. They got set up and called a little bit. About an hour into the hunt, Jake had to go pee bad. So he came up with his plan to sneak up to a tree he could hide behind.

On his sneak to the tree he came face to face with a big old gobbler. It would have been an easy shot. The only problem was his gun was next to the tree he was sitting by. The gobbler and Jake parted ways; one was happy, and one was not so happy. Which got me to thinking about always being prepared.

Matthew 25, New - The Parable of the Ten Virgins

"At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.

²Five of them were foolish and five were wise. ³The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them. ⁴The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps. ⁵The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

⁶At midnight the cry

rang out: 'Here's the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!'

⁷"Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps. ⁸The foolish ones said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.'

⁹"No,' they replied, 'there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.'

¹⁰"But while they were on their way to buy the oil, the bridegroom arrived. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the wedding banquet. And the door was shut.

¹¹"Later the others also came. 'Lord, Lord,' they said, 'open the door for us!'

¹²"But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I don't know you.'

¹³"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour."

The world seems to be getting worse with every passing day. Will the Lord tarry much longer? If Jesus comes back right now, are you prepared? Or would the door be shut? Don't be foolish because one day we all will have to answer to Him.

Until next week, get out and enjoy God's creation!
