The Seven Chosen to Serve

Acts 6:4-7

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. 5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: 6 Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

The Hell of Fire - Is it Real?

by BOB CASEY, preacher
Cornerstone Church of Christ
70 Bond Street at Camp Avenue in West Irvine

Someone once said, "You can catch more flies with honey than vinegar." This may be true, but I am not in the fly-catching business. When I promised the Lord that I would do my best in attempting to preach the Gospel of Salvation, my mind set was, and still is, to try to preach in such a way to awaken all whom I have spoken unto, their need to repent and obey the Gospel. Unless we do this, many will be lost eternally. So, my point is this, any scripture that I find in the New Testament that will arouse the lost to see their need of salvation, can and should be used.

Our Lord himself declares that there is a Hell of fire awaiting every sinner that will not hear, nor obey, the Gospel. Our Lord strongly emphasizes, many need to hear and believe on him. Take two minutes to read John 5:24-29. See for yourself just what it says! Also, take another couple of minutes to read Mark 9:42-45 where our Lord speaks loudly concerning man's physical extremities, calling his spirit a worm that dieth not, but ends up in a fire that shall never be quenched or satisfied. Then again, in Matthew 25:41-46, here our Lord is speaking concerning the unbelieving, disobedient, whom he calls cursed. Here he says this fire is everlasting, prepared for the devil and his angels. Revelation 20:10 declares that Satan, the devil, will be one of its first inhabitants. Then in Revelations 21:8, here it foretells those that will go there, called "fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." So, if you are so unfortunate to end up in this Lake of Fire, you will have the devil and all the worst of angels and men as your neighbors. Think about it.

An elderly Brother Preacher once said, "No one can preach too much about the Hell of Fire." He said, "I know it for sure, because when I first heard it, it sure scared the Hell out of me!" Speaking of course of his obedience to the Gospel that removed the curse of Hell fire out of his life. So, can the Gospel be fully and completely preached without preaching what the Lord says about the Lake of fire? No, it cannot! As a Gospel preacher I will use any parts of the New Testament to attempt to awaken men to the Judgment and eternal fire. Paul said in 1 Corinthians 3:13, "Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is." Friends, when I shall stand before Jesus, and I will, I want him to know that I have not shunned to declare all the Gospel of God and preachings to warn men and women to shun that awful place by doing their best to hear, believe, and full obey all that our Lord has said in his Holy Word, by being baptized in order to have all their sins and the curse of it removed by the blood of Jesus which is contracted when we fully obey. Just read Romans 3:3-6, "See if I tell the truth!" John 8:32 says that "ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." What is he saying? That obedience to him can, will remove the stain of since once and for all from your life and your name shall be in the Book of Life when we stand before our redeemer.

What about you, Dear Friend? Surely you do not wish to go to a Lake of fire, but procrastination will get you there for sure. We urge you to turn and obey the Lord today. We make ourselves available unto you 24 hours a day. Call 1-859-369-4165, local, or attend with us the next Lord's day.

Sincerely, Bob Casey

Seeds of Hope

Lo, there was a great earthquake, for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled away the stone and sat upon it; his appearance was as lightening and his clothes were as white as snow. For fear of him, the guards trembled and became as dead men. And the angel said to the women, "Be not afraid I know that you seek Jesus of Nazareth who was crucified. He is risen. He is not here. Why seek the living among the dead? Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee, saying, 'The Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful man and be crucified and on the third day rise again.' Come now and see that place where He lay. (Then they remembered His words.)"

"Go quickly and tell His disciples and Peter that He is risen from the dead, and lo, He goes before you into Galilee. There, you will see Him as He told you."

Some went away with fear and trembling and said nothing because they were afraid. Others went away quickly with fear and great joy and ran to tell the disciples.

EASTER - 2018

Mary Caroline Profitt McIntosh
A Special Mom

My mom was a soldier in an unusual way, She walked many hard miles, each long, hard day. She washed many diapers, lots of dirty clothes, Dried many tears, cleaned many a runny nose. No washing machine, just an old wash board; The luxuries of life, she could not afford. Her children had to be fed, her chores were so hard; At the end of the day, Mama looked so tired. Supper had to be cooked, and babies tucked into bed; She could not lie down until the family was fed. We children would get down and scrub the floor; We would use rags and lye soap; we had nothing more. We'd scrub and scrub until our hands were sore; They had to be clean, Mama always made sure. A true mother's love, won't stop when the way gets rough; Mama was always there for us, when times were tough. She did her share, to raise us right; I believe she won the battle, working day and night. Praying and working, to keep her family straight; Early to rise and staying up late.
