Creating and Maintaining Family Traditions

Building a strong family takes time and effort. Strong families are unified through deep emotional connections with each other, a sense of belonging in the family system and healthy relationships between members. This program is designed to reinforce the family assets of rituals and traditions by establishing routines, emphasizing habits, preserving and respecting existing traditions and providing practical ways to establish new traditions.

All are welcome to attend this lesson presented by Benita Peoples, Harrison County Family and Consumer Science agent, on April 23, 2018 at Noon, at the Estill County Extension Office. This program is free and open to the public. If you would like to sign up for this program, please call your Family and Consumer Sciences Agent, Thays Flores at 606-723-4557.
