Bob White Memories

The Bob White quail was a big part of my life from the 3rd grade all the way through college. I have chased quail over several states. I did my college research on quail. I have radio collared quail and tracked their movements. I have raised quail from day old chicks. I cherish my time spent with Mr. Bob White over the years.

My love for Bob White quail started way back when I was little. My Grandpa Bicknell would talk about the bird dogs he had and the quail hunts he went on. I soaked in every word. I loved hearing his stories about the quail. That, I guess, is what got me hooked on the Bob White.

I saved my money up in the 3rd grade and bought my first bird dog. He was a big black and white pointer named Jake. That dog taught me so much. He taught me responsibility and patience. Old Jake meant the world to me back then. I guess that's why my first-born son is named Jake. My dog Jake and I had us some great adventures chasing quail.

I was at a farm I've got leased doing some work. My son Jake was with me. When we got out of the truck I heard that Bob White whistle. Then Jake asked me if he could find it. Jake being like my old bird dog found the quail and flushed it. My son Jake was so excited seeing Mr. Bob White boil up and fly across the top of the grass.

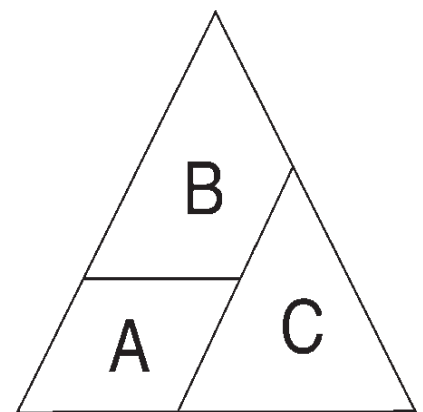

When that quail flushed WOW, the memories come rushing back. I can remember talking to Grandpa Bick about quail hunting. I could see Grandpa's face again, talking about setter dogs. I thought about the time Dad said he was going to cut wood while I hunted. When we let Jake out he nailed a covey and no wood got cut. We took turns shooting the Browning Sweet 16. I can remember how a setter I had, got tired of me missing and when a bird he pointed flushed he grabbed it out of the air. The setter looked at me like to say that's how it is done. I could write for a week about all the memories that come rushing back in just a few seconds. So many great memories.

I will close with Thanks to God for that quail bringing back all the memories. What a blessing to see my grandpa's face talking bird dogs in my memory. He wasn't healthy enough to hunt with me, but after most hunts I would get to tell him how we did. The Good Lord put a Bob White Quail in my path and I thank Him!

Until next week, get out and enjoy God's creation!
