Maudie's Naughties

Wrong Tee

It is a sunny Saturday morning, and Pete is beginning his pre-shot routine. As he is visualizing his upcoming shot, a voice comes over the loudspeaker, "Would the gentleman on the ladies tee please back up to the men's tee, please!" Pete is still deep in his routine, seemingly impervious to the interruption. Again the announcement, "Would the man on the women's tee kindly back up to the men's tee!" Pete has had enough. He yells, "Will the announcer in the clubhouse kindly shut up and let me play my second shot!"

Hack Golfer

A hack golfer spends a day at the plush country club . . . knocking balls around the course and enjoying the luxury of a complimentary caddy.

Being a hack golfer, he plays poorly all day. About the 18th hole, he spots a lake left of the fairway.

He looks at the caddy and says, "I've played so poorly all day; I think I'm going to go drown myself in that lake."

The caddy looks back at him and says, "I don't think you could keep your head down that long."

Money Problems

A young man is having some money problems . . . and needs $200 to get his car fixed and road-worthy again. But, he has run out of friends to borrow from.

So, he calls his dad who is playing golf at the club with a friend, and says, "I need to borrow two hundred dollars."

At the other end, his father says, "Sorry, I can't hear you well, son. I think I'm out of tower range."

The boy shouts, "Two hundred. Ineedtwohundreddollars!"

"Sorry, I still can't hear you clearly," says his father.

The friend butts in and says, "There's nothing wrong with that phone. I can hear him perfectly."

"Oh, good!" says the father. "Then, YOU send him the money!"

Pulling A Tooth

The patient enquires of the dentist, "How much do you charge for pulling out a tooth?"

"Three hundred dollars is the usual fee," the dentist says.

"Three hundred dollars for such a quick operation?" complains the patient.

"Well," counsels the helpful dentist. "I'll can do it very slowly for you so you get your money's worth,"

Couples Golf

A husband and wife play golf together every day. She always wins. Tired of humiliation, he decides to break her concentration. As she readies to tee off he goes up to her and whispers into her ear. "I've had a mistress for the whole 15 years we've been married."

Needless to say, the wife loses the round.

Next day, the wife decides it's time to punish her husband. As he readies to tee off she says, "Before we met I was a man." He loses the round.

At work the next day he just can't get over what his wife has told him. A colleague notices his distress, and the husband blurts out the whole story.

"Why worry?" says the colleague.

"You love your wife and have been happy for 15 years. Just forget the whole thing."

"That's not the point," says the husband.

"She's been teeing off the women's tee for all that time!"

The Love Dress

A young girl gets married and a few days later her mother goes to visit. When she knocks on the door, she is shocked to see her daughter open it naked.

"What are you doing?" she asks.

"Mom, it's my LOVE dress!! Don't you like it?"

"I'll come back in a few weeks when the honeymoon is over," replies the mom.

When she goes back, she is shocked when once again her daughter is naked. "Now what are you doing?"

"Mom, it's my LOVE dress. It keeps the marriage spicy!"

Later that night the mom decides to try it for herself. When her husband comes home, he gives the same reaction: "Honey, what are you doing?"

She give him the same answer her daughter gave her, "It's my LOVE dress! What do you think of it?"

Her husband thinks long and hard and says, "I think you should have ironed it!"

Exam Room

A new patient is quite upset when the doctor's nurse leads him to a small, curtained cubicle and tells him to undress. "But I only want the doctor to look at an ingrown toenail!" he protests.

"Our rule is that everyone must undress," replies the nurse as she hands him a very skimpy johnny.

"That's a stupid rule," grumbles the patient, "Making me undress just to look at my toe."

"That's nothing," growls a voice from the next cubicle. "I just came to fix the phones!"

New State Laws Go Into Effect

FRANKFORT – Most new laws approved during the Kentucky General Assembly's 2018 session will go into effect on Saturday, July 14.

That means drivers will soon be required to leave at least three feet of space between their vehicles and cyclists they pass. Children under the age of 17 will not be allowed to get married. And penalties will get tougher for those who post sexually explicit images online without the consent of the person depicted.

The Kentucky Constitution specifies that new laws take effect 90 days after the adjournment of the legislature unless they have a special effective date, are general appropriations measures, or include an emergency clause that makes them effective immediately upon becoming law. Final adjournment of the 2018 Regular Session was on April 14, making July 14 the effective date for most bills.

Laws taking effect that day include measures on the following topics:

Abstinence Education. Senate Bill 71 will require the inclusion of abstinence education in any human sexuality or sexually transmitted diseases curriculum in Kentucky high schools.

Bicycle safety. House Bill 33 will require drivers to keep their vehicles at least three feet away from bicyclists during an attempt to pass. If that much space isn't available, drivers must use reasonable caution when passing cyclists.

Breweries. House Bill 136 will increase what breweries can sell onsite to three cases and two kegs per customer. The new law will also allow breweries to sell one case per customer at fairs and festivals in wet jurisdictions.

Dyslexia. House Bill 187 will require the state Department of Education to make a "dyslexia toolkit" available to school districts to help them identify and instruct students who display characteristics of dyslexia.

Financial literacy. House Bill 132 will require Kentucky high school students to pass a financial literacy course before graduating.

Foster Care and Adoption. House Bill 1 will take steps to reform the state's foster care and adoption system to ensure that a child's time in foster care is limited and that children are returned to family whenever possible. It will expand the definition of blood relative for child placement and ensure that children in foster care are reunified with family or placed in another permanent home in a timely manner.

Organ donation. House Bill 84 will require coroners or medical examiners to release identifying and other relevant information about a deceased person to Kentucky Organ Donor Affiliates if the person's wish to be an organ donor is known and the body is suitable for medical transplant or therapy.

Police cameras. House Bill 373 will exempt some police body camera footage from being publicly released. It will exempt the footage from certain situations being released if it shows the interior of private homes, medical facilities, women's shelters and jails or shows a dead body, evidence of sexual assault, nude bodies and children.

Prescription medicines. Senate Bill 6 will require pharmacists to provide information about safely disposing of certain prescription medicines, such as opiates and amphetamines.

Price gouging. Senate Bill 160 will clarify laws that prevent price gouging during emergencies. The bill specifies that fines could be imposed if retailers abruptly increase the price of goods more than 10 percent when the governor declares a state of emergency.

Revenge porn. House Bill 71 will increase penalties for posting sexually explicit images online without the consent of the person depicted. The crime would be a misdemeanor for the first offense and felony for subsequent offenses. Penalties would be even more severe if the images were posted for profit.

Teen marriage. Senate Bill 48 will prohibit anyone under the age of 17 from marrying. It will also require a district judge to approve the marriage of any 17-year-old.

Terrorism. Senate Bill 57 will allow a person injured by an act of terrorism to file a claim for damages against the terrorist in state court.
