For his Eagle Scout project, Clarence Worrell constructed a ceremonial flag-burning pit at the American Legion Post on Miller's Creek last month. With the help of Troop 89 and Russ Walling, who donated the backhoe work, and materials purchased by the American Legion and some donated by Colonel Tom Hart, Clarence made the ceremonial pit so that tattered American flags could be disposed of properly. During Saturday's 4th of July festivities which included a car show, live music and fireworks, the Flag-burning ceremony took place at dusk. Clarence was honored to be able to participate in this year's ceremony and enjoys serving his community whenever possible. Pictured at the ceremony were Adam Abshear, Dan Swinegar, Wyatt McQueen, Dr. J.D. Hill, David Worrell, Jacob Abshear and Clarence Worrell.
