In Memory of Elsie Patrick Proffitt April 12, 1923 to July 8, 1993

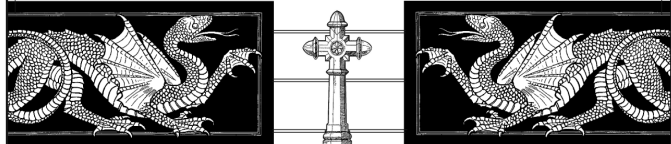

Mom, it's now been 25 years since God called you home, but we still miss you so much. You had a large family but you worked hard to take care of all of us. We wonder sometimes how you accomplished all you did. You worked hard to try to get all of us through high school. We sure love and appreciate all you did.

We still miss you terribly,
All your family

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who do not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the antichrist. Watch yourselves, that you do not lose what we have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward.

Grannys and Grandpas are Wonderful Dedicated to Pop & Jim Proffitt and Rosa & Jimmy Runt

Today, to my Grandpa and Grandma, I say, "I LOVE YOU." I have many precious memories of days gone by, When I was young, you were very special. Now all I can do is place flowers on your graves, with tears in my eyes.

Please, young folks, if you still have grandparents; If they are alive and you can, visit them today. Tell them you love and appreciate them.

It is too late when they are gone. Grave markers can't hear what you say.

In my childhood day, children respected their grandparents. Mom and Dad made sure you did. Now, children don't know to respect their elders. The grandparents are lonely and sad.

I was happy just going to the spring for water with Grandma Proffitt.

I was pleased to sit for hours talking to Grandma Rosie. I loved to watch Grandpa Proffitt shoe the horses' feet. I did this when my Mom would let us walk through the woods and back.

With Grandpa McIntosh, things were a bit different. He walked for miles to Irvine every day. Lots of times, he would stop at our house for a visit. He would inform us of things he had learned on the way.

We are here today because we still care. We place flowers on grandpas and grandmas graves. All we have left of them is a cold marble stone in the Crowe Cemetery today.
