Wildy McKinney Family Reunion

The Wildy McKinney Family Reunion will be held Saturday, July 28, 2018, from 10:00 to 5:00 at Jackson's Chapel United Methodist Church 3010 Spout Springs Road, Irvine, Kentucky 40336, on Highway 82 in Estill County between Hargett and Clay City. The patriarch of this family, Wildy McKinney can be documented as living in Estill County as early as 1817. Memory of who he was has become buried in Court House records in Clark, Madison, and Estill Counties. The oldest family attendees of reunions for the past four years are his great-great-grandchildren. Our memories are much shorter. We remember his great-grandchildren (our grandparents). This reunion will focus on Wildy, featuring a video timeline of his life, presentation to the group of the most comprehensive genealogy of the Wildy McKinney family to date (including 4,373 direct descendants as well as his ancestors and siblings), presentation of a history of McKinney Family Reunions, and inauguration of McKinney family archives at the Red River Museum in Clay City. The schedule for the day: 10:00 : Concurrent activities. Register, meet and greet; find yourself on the family tree with the help of the genealogy; establish your connection to the other attendees; tour the McKinney plot of the cemetery with a guide to what McKinney family members are buried here; watch a video timeline of Wildy McKinney's life; 11:45 official photos—each branch (descendants of David Russell McKinney, Lucy McKinney Tiley Noland, John Franklin, William, Matthew, Miriam McKinney Clark, Mary "Polly" Jane McKinney Highley, Thomas Shelton, Joel, Martha Ann, and Elizabeth); each generation; then the whole group. 12:15 Potluck Dinner and Visiting in the Church, bring your favorite dishes; 1:30 The Annual Meeting followed by a Hymn Sing. The Red River Museum will be open and all are invited to visit there following the time at Jackson's Chapel.
