God's Way

by Mabel Tipton

How do you feel today? Are you feeling lucky? If you are, is it good luck or a turn from good to bad luck we are expecting? Do you even believe in luck at all? I guess I just don't believe in luck. If I believed in luck, I would believe it ruled my life. Now, I do believe in chance, or perhaps circumstances.

I had a friend of mine come by the house Friday, she told me she got lucky. She got two red ripe tomatoes from her garden. Now, she believed she got lucky. I believe she took a chance. She put the tomato plant in the garden and the plant produced.

"And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Bethshemesh, then he hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us." (1 Samuel 6:9)

We as God's creation, always have a plan, a thought, an idea, or a reason to go against him. We should never go against God's Word. We are asking for trouble when we do.

I always think of Jonah when I think of a man asking God for trouble. Jonah asked, and God delivered. After three days in the belly of the whale, Jonah was glad to go to Ninevah. You can read the book of Jonah in the Bible if you don't know what I'm talking about.

"I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all." (Ecclesiastes 9:11)

One time I bought a bingo ticket from the lottery scratch offs. I got lucky. The card was a $40 winner. I was so excited by the win, I bought $40 worth of the same Bingo scratch offs. I never won another dollar then or ever again. Because, I never bought another ticket. That's been about 30 years ago. Now is that luck bad or not?

Come learn with me.

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

Detail of "Man Praying" by Vincent Van Gogh, 1883

Devote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with an attitude of thanksgiving; praying at the same time for us as well, that God will open up to us a door for the word, so that we may speak forth the mystery of Christ...

Seeds of Hope

"You know how much I love you, Josie - more than anyone or anything in the world!" began his text message. "Can't wait until I see you this evening. Will be there if I don't go to the ball game with Rob. Love, Steve."

It didn't take Josie long to erase the message and text her friend Ruth asking if they could get together for dinner. She had trouble understanding that kind of love. And so does God. We say one thing to Him and then live a life that is entirely inconsistent with His understanding of love and what He expects us to do if we love Him.

"You who love the Lord," said the Psalmist, "hate evil!" That is a very straight forward, simple statement. It is one of Scriptures If/Then challenges that God puts in our pathway. Put another way we might ask, "if we don't hate evil can we truly love God? And, if we hate evil, how will our lives show those around us that we do?"

Loving God means that we will do whatever is necessary to align ourselves with His plan and purpose for His world. We will work with Him to reach out to those around us with a heart full of His love to show them His grace and mercy. We will be uncomfortable if we know of someone, somewhere who needs something that we have that we can share with them that will bring hope and healing to their lives.

People who lie abandoned in convalescent homes and children who are abused through no fault of their own and individuals who crave a smile and a hug need to know that "we love the Lord." They will if we reach out.
