

Estill Woman Was One of First Women In Marine Corps

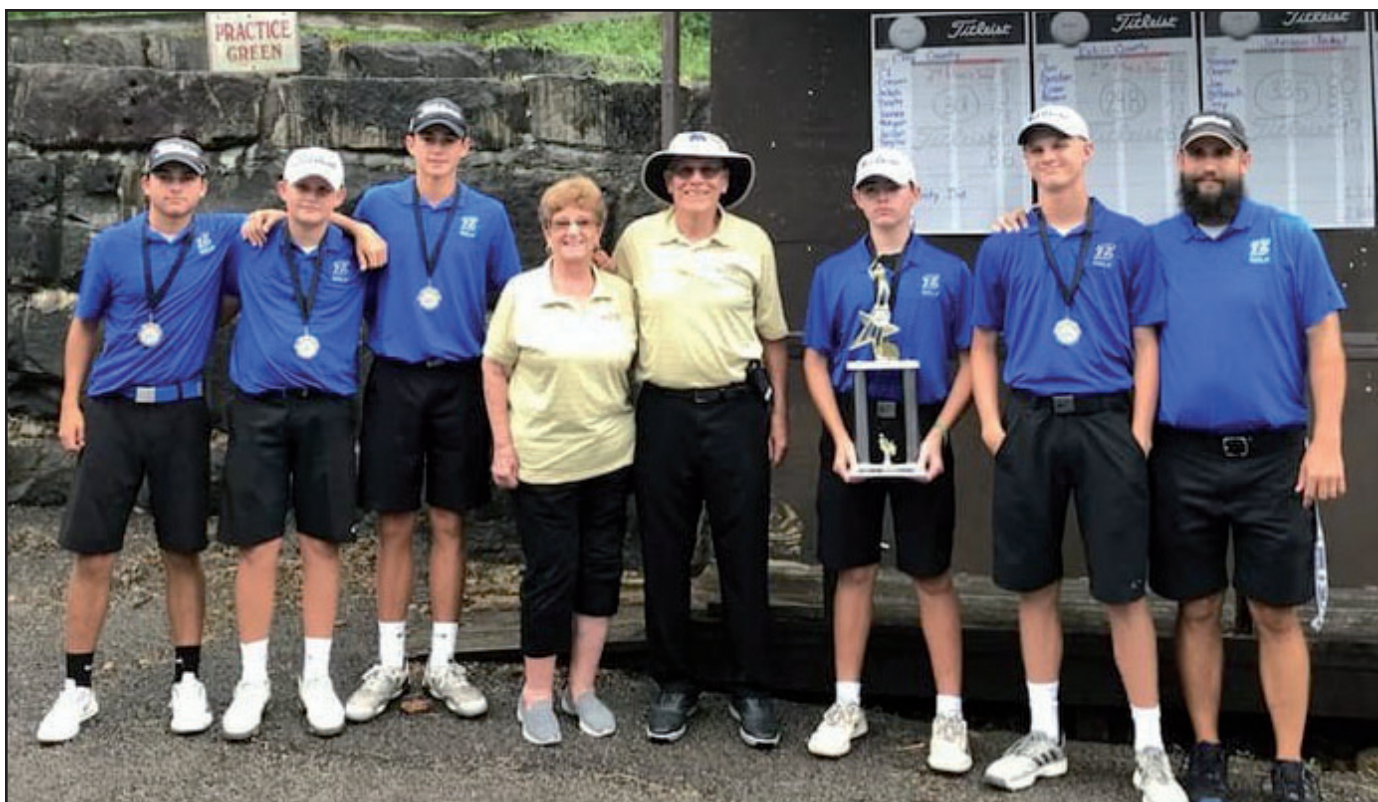

Josephine McIntosh Roberts of Sandhill Road in Irvine was one of the first women to join the United States Marine Corps, enlisting in 1950 with a group of 50 women. Visiting with Mrs. Roberts last week at her home were Craig Pyles, commandant of Marine Corps League detachment 1012 in Richmond, and Patti Wahley who is assistant manager and does the group newsletter plus monthly posts on their Facebook page. Their motto is "Here to serve our fellow veterans of all services, their families and the community. Semper Parati." Despite the obvious difference in appearances of the two Marines, they bonded quickly, even finishing each other sentences as they talked about their similar experiences during Marine training and talking about the various commanding officers they served under.

See complete story on Page 14)

Estill Co. Boys Golf Team Wins Another Tournament

The Estill County Engineers Golf Team won their second straight tournament at the 2018 Nelson and Cathy Gullett Johnson Central Invitational. The Estill County team score - 298 1st Place, three strokes ahead of second place Clay County's team score of 301. Scoring for Estill was: Joe Benton 72 - 3rd Place Individual; Kade Benton 73 - 4th Place Individual; Andrew Elam 76, Isaac Napier 77, and Cobbe Click 82.

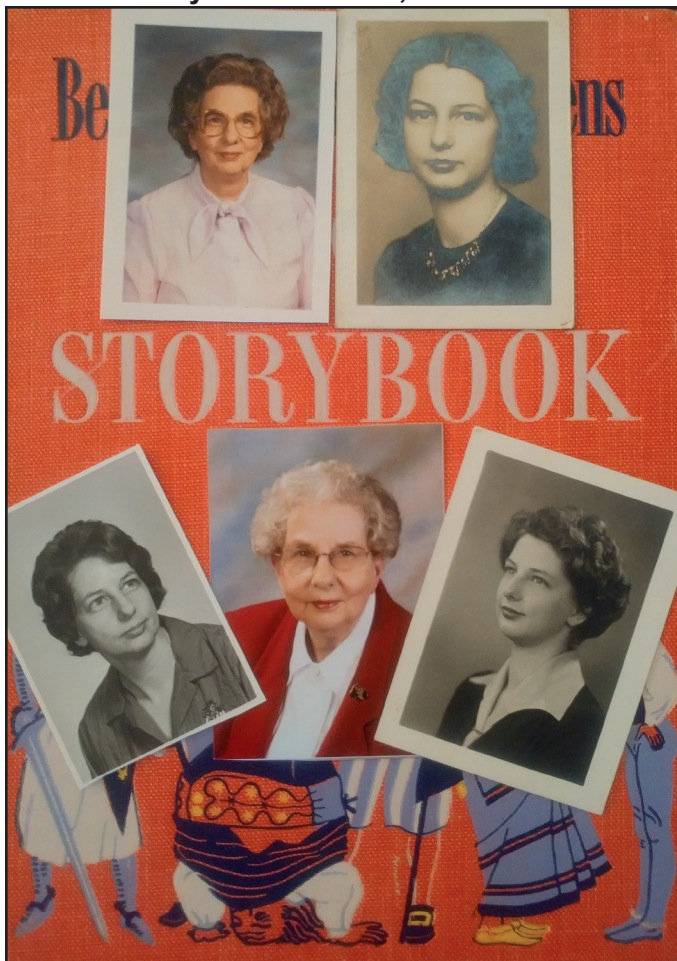

Left to right are: Isaac Napier, Kade Benton, Joe Benton, Cathy Gullett, Nelson Gullett, (tournament was named after them) Andrew Elam, Cobbe Click, and Coach Ricky Joe Benton. (Photo courtesy of Coach Benton)

31 years ago, Estill High principal Chris Winkler started teaching and coaching freshman basketball. One of his freshman ballplayers was Brian Kiser, (pictured above) who went on to play for the University of Louisville. Kiser was best known for his career with the Louisville Cardinals for sinking the winning shot against UCLA. He met his wife at Uof L, and they have eight children between 4 and 21. He worked for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. Then the family spent 13 years overseas doing mission work in Sudan, Egypt, and Jordan. Kiser spoke to Estill students on Friday about life choices.

Board chairman Rhonda Hardy, left, and board member Donna Isfort, far right, presented certificates from the National Institute of School Leadership to Assistant Supt. Tonya Isaacs and Andrea Williams, principal at Estill County Middle School, Happy 98th Birthday!

Sara Noland!

SAVE A LIFE: Community Overdose Response Training

Community forum to educate and prevent opiate/heroin related overdoses including FREE Narcan Training

Thursday, August 30th
7:00 pm
Estill County Extension Office
76 Golden Court, Irvine, KY

Join us to learn about:
>Overdose causes and prevention
>>Overdose intervention to save a life
>>>How to use Narcan (an overdose reversal drug)

Anyone completing the training will receive a
FREE NARCAN KIT
for use in an overdose emergency!

Training provided by:
StopHeroinLexington

Sponsored by:
Estill/Powell Agency for Substance Abuse Policy

For more information or questions, contact:
Teresa McKinley at teresamckinley17@gmail.com or Shaye Walker at cswalker@bluegrass.org or 859-230-3253