Estill County Public Library

by Chelsea Bicknell September 7th, 2018

Hello everyone!

I hope you all have been having a great September thus far! We definitely are here at the Estill County Public Library. Here is a recap of the programs we have done in the past week or so and an update on programs that are about to happen:

For our Adults, we held our Adult Book Club on Tuesday, September 4th at 1:30pm. The next book club meeting will be on Tuesday, October 2nd at 1:30pm. The club is currently reading The Guinea Pig Diaries by A.J. Jacobs. All of the books are available in large print and audiobook format, and they are ready to be picked up anytime here at the library! As previously mentioned, the Adult Book club meets on the first Tuesday of each month at 1:30pm here at the library and they are always looking for new members to join!

We also held the first of the Small Business series on Thursday, September 6th at Noon. Christina Vaughn was here to talk about small business start-ups/using realtor services to book guests for Bed and Breakfasts! We hope that all who wanted to attend did so! The next program in the series is on Friday, September 14th starting at 12:00pm. Amy Williams from the Mountain Association for Community Economic Development (MACED) Incorporation will be here. She will be discussing the pros and cons of getting started in a small business and the economic value of owning/operating a small business. If you're interested in starting your own business, but don't know where or how to start, this series would be perfect for you! We hope you'll join us!

Our Pickin' in the Park concert series has started back up and we've been having some really great shows! So far we have had local musicians Dale and Alison Thomas perform, and Jen Richardson performed this week. The next show is on Tuesday, September 18th at 6:30pm either at the Rising Park or in the library, depending on the weather (you can call us or check our Facebook page if you want to be sure where to go!). Kevin Shearer will be the performer so be sure to come check it out! After Kevin, our next performer will be rising musician, Madison Lewis, who is traveling all the way from London, KY. Her show will be on Tuesday, September 25th beginning at 6:30pm. We hope you all can come join us for these great concerts!

As mentioned last week, Crafternoon has started again! Vicki Horn was here on Wednesday, September 12th at 1:30pm and she revealed her secrets on how to make the perfect Chocolate No-bake Cookies! Hopefully you got to attend and taste some samples! The next Crafternoon session will be on Wednesday, September 26th at 1:30pm and that will be an Art lesson with Sandy Savage. If you would like to attend, just give us a call at 723-3030 to sign-up! All are welcome!

The Whodunit Book Club is meeting on Monday, September 17th and the book for the month is available here at the library if you are interested in checking one out! The book is Robert B. Parker's Bull River by Robert Knott. Stop by the library and check out a copy to read, and then join the club for a lively discussion on the 17th. New members are always welcome! For more details, please call the library and ask for Kathy.

For our teens, we had Anime club on Friday, September 7th. They are always looking for more members to join, so if you know any Anime enthusiasts, be sure to let them know the club meets every Friday at 3:30pm here at the library. They can ride the bus down from school or be dropped off. This is open to any middle or high school aged teen!

They also had the first meeting of the Young Adult Book club on Monday, September 10th! The book they are reading this month is The Invention of Hugo Cabret by Brian Selznick, which can still be picked up here at the library anytime. The next meeting will be on Monday, September 24th at 4:00pm. Any middle or high school aged teens are still welcome to join in! This is an awesome opportunity for young reading enthusiasts to get together and have some great discussions.

For the kiddos, Storytime and Lego club have been going strong! There are now three different opportunities to attend Storytime - Wednesday's at 10:30am, Friday's at 10:30am, and now Thursday evenings at 5:30pm! Each session they listen to stories, sing songs, and make crafts - this is a great opportunity for kids to make new friends and have fun learning new things! Just a heads up though, there will be NO Storytime on Thursday, September 20th or Friday, September 21st. The rest of the month will go on as usual though.

As for Lego club, they had a big attendance last Thursday, September 6th. There were thirteen kids who showed up to create! They had so many creations that they ran out of space in the display case and had to set some out on the check-out counter. The next Lego Club meets Thursday, September 13th at 4:15pm. There will NOT be Lego club on the next Thursday, September 20th, but there WILL be on September 27th, so be sure to mark your calendars if you have kids interested in attending!

The Homeschool Enrichment Group began meeting this week. As mentioned last week, this is a great chance for homeschoolers and their families to get together and learn something new! They meet the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month at 1:00pm here at the Library. Their next meeting is on Thursday, September 27th. If you want to get more information about this, just give us a call at 723-3030!

Our top ten book recommendations of the week come from the Bookmobile lady, Mrs. Sherri Jenkins! Her top ten favorite books are as follows: The Lord of the Rings by J.R.R. Tolkien, The Hobbit by J.R.R. Tolkien, Interview with the Vampire by Anne Rice, Post Mortem by Patricia Cornwell, The Adventures of Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain, Little Beach Street Bakery by Jenny Colgan, Little Women by Louisa May Alcott, Goodnight Moon by Margaret Wise Brown, Gone with the Wind by Margaret Mitchell, and Kiss the Girls by James Patterson. These books will all be on display at the front of the library if you would like to come check them out! That is all the updates for now. Thanks for reading! As always, if you have any questions, comments or concerns about anything regarding the library, please do not hesitate to stop on in or give us a call at 723-3030. Until next week!
