Georgetown College fishers Hunter Osborne and Jacob Locke managed three keepers to lock them into 4th place out of 170 boaters in Cabela's Collegiate Bass Fishing Open ACA Trail on Lake Dardanelle in Arkansas, last weekend. Osborne, an Estill County graduate, and Locke were in second place on Saturday, less than a half pound behind the leaders, but a 3-hour fog delay and boat trouble may have affected their fishing on Sunday. Great teammates helped them get their fish to weigh in.

Glenda Gay Oliver and the Modern Woodmen presented Donna Isfort with a certificate for her dedication to the community. Pictured with Oliver and Isfort is Kaylee Isfort. During a meeting held last Tuesday night Donna Isfort was recognized by the Modern Woodmen for her service and dedication to the community. Isfort has owned the Estill Medical Clinic for nearly eleven years and employs fourteen people at the clinic. Isfort said that she has lived in Irvine her entire life and grew up surrounded by family that were all within 'hollerin distance.' She is married with four children and is actively involved in her church. She said that she has always been a giver and when she purchased the clinic she saw it as a way to not only show her patients love but to also bring God's word and ministry to work with her. Between the clinic, her family, and church, Isfort is also a member of the Estill County School Board. She said that she's been very blessed and wants to give back to the community. "It's not about money, it's about happiness and doing the right thing," stated Isfort. She intends to donate the gift certificate that she received from the Modern Woodmen to the Irvine Nursing Home in honor of Kelcie Harris. She said that Harris, who is a resident, has been working diligently to raise money for their annual Christmas party and the gift certificate should be enough for the party.

The Estill County Marching Engineers competed in the KMEA Class AAA State Marching Band semifinals and finals on Saturday. In the semifinal round, they finished 1st in Class AAA out of 16 bands with a distinguished rating at a school record score of 93.4 to advance to the finals. In the finals on Saturday night, the Marching Engineers gave a tremendous performance and finished 2nd overall in the state in Class AAA by only 0.1 points. They have had an incredible season, and will compete in the Bands of America Grand Nationals at Lucas Oil Stadium November 14-16 in Indianapolis, IN. (Photo courtesy of Melissa Kelley)
