Estill Public Library

by Shannon Horn

Baby Art

Monday, Oct. 28th, forty-three adults and toddlers piled into the meeting room here at the library for a messy, fun art session. We used edible paint to decorate several cardboard boxes. Some of the littles actually got it in their hair and on their faces. Everyone had such a good time. We certainly had a lot of laughs. Some of the kids didn't want to touch the paint until I got my hands into it. Then they were all about it. I somehow managed to not get paint on myself. I was rather surprised. There are some really cute pictures from this program on our Facebook page.

Teen Film Club

Our Teen Film Club has finished filming for their haunted library tale short film. They only met four times to film, but they had it all finished last week. We are waiting for the editing process to be completed, but we believe it will be uploaded to our YouTube and Facebook on Halloween. Make sure you check it out. They worked really hard on it. I am really rather proud of them all.

Fall for Books

On Saturday, November 2nd from 10:00 to 12:00 the Madison-Estill Community Early Childhood Council along with a professor from ECU's occupational therapy department will be providing programming for children five years old and younger. You don't have to sign up to participate. Just stop in and join the fun and games that they will be providing.

Local Artist Showcase

During the month of December we will be hosting a local artist showcase. Any local artist can bring in their art work November 25, 26, and 27th from 9:00-5:00. It will be displayed in the meeting room from December 2nd through the 20th. It can be any kind of art; sketches, quilts, paintings, anything and everything are welcome. For more information, call 723-3030 and ask for Lesa.

November is almost here. Stop in the library and pick up a calendar for the month!
