Community Chorus gets new director Cole Retired Monday

by DELORES LYNN ROWLAND Tribune News Editor

ductor this year. She is new to both Estill County and the community chorus.

Christine, or Chris, Fondaw and her family moved to Estill County about a year and a half ago. Her husband, an engineer, was hired to run safety lessons at Blue Grass Army Depot.

This meant a move from Texas to Kentucky. They looked around the Richmond area before moving, and decided Estill County was where they wanted to live and

She thought it would be cooler and rainier than Texas. "I'm wanting to grow a berry farm," she said.

Robin Reed, a member of the community chorus, met Fondaw at the farmers' market where he sets up weekly. Since moving to Estill County, Fondaw also sets up at the farmers' market where she sells country eggs.

The community chorus was looking for a conductor. After Reed got acquainted with Fondaw at the market, he asked her to become the conductor.

He stated it is strictly a volunteer position.

Fondaw grew up in Washington state but went to college in Utah. She received a degree in design (applied arts) with an emphasis in photography.

She has eight children from her first marriage, and her husband has three. They now have only three children at home. One daughter just graduated from Marine basic

Another daughter plays for the award-winning, marching band at Estill County High School. When band competition is over, she will be singing with the community

Fondaw started taking voice lessons when she was 17 years old. She was the conductor of two church choirs in

More members are being sought for the community chorus, which meets at 7 p.m. on Thursdays at Irvine Unit-The Estill County Community Chorus has a new con- ed Methodist Church on Main Street. (There are no audi-

Male chorus members will really be appreciated.

Fondaw also invites students to join the chorus.

The chorus presents two concerts annually, including a Christmas concert the day after the Irvine-Ravenna Kiwanis parade. The other concert is held in the spring, and the chorus members take the summer off.

Christine Fondaw

Many waive indictments on Rocket Docket

Many people waived inin Estill Circuit Court. They appeared before Judge Michael Dean on the Rocket 16. Docket and were sentenced.

Glyndon Isaacs, 57, of Sawmill Road, Irvine waived an indictment for fleeing or evading police, first degree (motor vehicle) and second degree (on foot), and operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or version. drugs, second violation.

July 26. He pled guilty and was sentenced.

City, waived indictments in $10,000. two separate but related cas-

She also admitted to traf- sentence. ficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense. The waiver says she had methamphetamine in her possession on Sept. 6 with the intent to sell.

Wade Smith, 52, of Winchester Road, Irvine, waived an indictment for trafficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense, possession of marijuana, drug paraphernalia, fleeing or evading police, first degree (on foot), resisting arrest, and disorderly conduct. He allegedly had methamphetamine in his possession when he was arrested

Sept. 6. was sentenced and a probation order was entered. Kayla Brinegar, 27, of Kirkland Avenue, Irvine waived an indictment for operating a motor vehicle under the influence of alcohol or drugs and possession of a controlled substance, first or more).

degree and first offense. her possession on Sept. 3.

Judge Michael Dean sentenced her to diversion.

An indictment was waived for Craig A. Mullins, 21, of Jackson on charges of public intoxication and two counts of possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (heroin and those crimes on Sept. 8.

He was sentenced and an order of probation entered.

Charles Stephen Sparks, 29, of Richmond, pled guilty to possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (meth), and tampering with physical evidence on August 30.

dictments on September 19 Dry Branch Road, Irvine der the influence on July 11, a plea agreement. His case pled guilty to tampering with two counts of possession of > Racetrack Road, Irvine pled on November 5 for the first guilty to tampering with charge. physical evidence and possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (meth) on July 20.

She was sentenced to di- stance.

These events occurred on Rose Ridge Road, Irvine pled guilty to theft by unlaw-

The waiver states that she (heroin) on August 5. stole two gold rings and a She pled guilty and was Lenova laptop from Tammy fine, 30 days license suspensentenced for possession of a Young's residence on August sion, DUI service fee, and belts, failure of owner to firearm by a convicted felon. 3. She was given a diverted court costs. He was sen- maintain required insurance, > Eddie Creech, 53, of Kirkland Ave., Irvine waived an indictment for possession of a controlled substance, third degree and first offense, tampering with physical evidence, and possession of drug paraphernalia.

The waiver states he tried to conceal a loaded syringe charged with possession on July 28.

a probation order entered.

Corey Austin Isaacs, 25, of Cow Creek Road, Ravenna, waived an indictment on charges of first degree criminal mischief and public in-

Isaacs allegedly damaged After he pled guilty. He a victim's property on July 27. A probation order was entered for Isaacs after he was sentenced. An indictment was waived for Paul Anthony Descoteaux, 52, of Edgewater Drive, Irvine on a charge of cultivating marijuana (five plants 14.

She allegedly had meth in Descoteaux was growing a plot of marijuana on July 6.

> He was given a two year diverted sentence.

Earl Peters, 64, of Dry Branch Road, Irvine, waived an indictment for possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense evidence.

The waiver states that he Mullins was charged with had meth in his possession and threw a tube with drugs into his vehicle on June 19.

> A deferred prosecution order was entered for Peters..

Jacob Michael Fox failed to appear on a charge of criminal possession of a forged instrument. A bench first degree and first offense warrant was issued.

He was given a probated 67, of Ridge Road, Irvine, 16. A diversion order was on Sept. 24. waived an indictment to op- entered.

Wanda Watson, 48, of erating a motor vehicle unphysical evidence on August a controlled substance, first degree (oxycodone and va-Adrian Young, 21, of lium). She will be sentenced

> Deferred prosecution orders were entered on two charges of first degree possession of a controlled sub-

Zackery Watts, 34, of Heather Jones, 42, of Wood Point Drive, Irvine waived an indictment to operating a motor vehicle under ful taking or disposition of the influence and possession Sheila Ray, 48, of Clay $500 or more but less than of a controlled substance,

> He was sentenced to $200 tenced to two years for possession of heroin which was probated for two years. A was dismissed.

Charges against Aaron Martin Noland were bound over to the Estill Grand Jury because he did not accept the plea agreement. He has been of a controlled substance, Creech was sentenced and first degree and first offense (methamphetamine) and contempt of court.

In a separate case, Noland was charged with promoting contraband, second degree. It was also bound over to the grand jury.

Wallace Drive, Irvine waived an indictment on charges of first degree possession of a controlled substance (hydrocodone), failure to owner to maintain required insurance, and carrying a concealed deadly weapon on August

A charge of failure to or Sept. 27. The waiver states that improper signal was dismissed against Sparks. He was given a three year probated sentence on the possession charge. No insurance carries a $500 fine.

He was sentenced to 12 months for the concealed weapon. The sentence was diverted and runs concurand tampering with physical rently with the three year over limit and failure of non-

Charges of first degree possession of a controlled substance and possession of marijuana against James cense were merged. Sparks were dismissed.

James Sparks, 28, of Walnut Grove, Irvine waived an indictment for possession of a controlled substance, (meth) and tampering with Rosemary Wolfinbarger, physical evidence on August

Michael J. Hatton rejected was bound over to the grand

He is charged with possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense, possession of marijuana, and drug parapherna-

Marie Belle Stepp was charged with theft by unlawful taking or shoplifting $500 or more, but under $10,000. A status hearing was scheduled for her on Oct. 25 because she has a new case

On Sept. 16, all charges first degree and first offense against Michelle Lynn Ginter were dismissed. These included second degree burglary, failure to wear seat and operating a motor vehicle under the influence.

Brian Brewer pled guilty charge of drug paraphernalia to trafficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (heroin), no/expired registration plates, failure of non-owner operator to maintain insurance, leaving scene of accident, menacing, possession of a controlled substance (drug unspecified), and carrying a concealed weapon.

Brewer was sentenced on Sept. 16.

Citations Issued This Week

On Sept. 25, Deputy James Marshall served a bench warrant from Estill Darrin Clay Spark, 41, of District Court on Marcus Kidd. Judge William Leach set Kidd's bond at $198 cash, because Kidd had allegedly failed to pay.

A warrant from Estill District Court for a traffic offense was served on Eddie Young of Irvine was served by Deputy Chris Coffey on Glenn Carroll served a bench warrant on Ronald Penman, 28, of Berea on Sept. 27. Estill District Judge William Leach issued the warrant because Penman allegedly had not paid fines and or court costs after being found guilty of speeding 15 mph owner to maintain insurance. Charges of failure to register transfer of vehicle and driving on a DUI suspended li-

Deputy Marshall cited Christian Spencer of Mt. Crest, Irvine with license plate not legible, failure to produce insurance card, license to be in possession, and failure of non-owner to maintain required insurance

Continued from Page 1

He said there were a lot of ty because of the lead-based paint in historic homes.

Cole said sometimes the elevated levels went back to a family member working in a factory with batteries or a junk yard.

Cole has also promoted radon testing in homes. Some homes have undergone radon mitigation because of high radon levels.

As the environmentalist, he has been very involved when TENORM was brought illegally to the land-

He has served as an advisor to Estill County Concerned Citizens. After retirement, Cole plans to remain a member of that group.

At one time, Cole said the health department stayed busy hitting all the illegal

He adds roadside litter is one area where he thinks the was youth director there. county has slid back. Nonprofit groups can now earn the county judge's office.

There is also a fine for anyone who is caught littering the roadside.

Cole stated that he thought because of uncertainty in the Kentucky Pension System health departments.

He added the health department serves a very imcases in Montgomery Coun- portant role to people who cannot travel to other coun-

He has also been offered jobs with the state and with the private sector.

Cole is a past president of the Kentucky Health Education Association. He continues to serve on the organization's board of directors.

He and his wife, Kelly, a rheumotogolist, live in Lexington where she continues to practice. They have two daughters. The older one is a nurse. The other is a college student with a double major in neuroscience and photography.

Cole attended Ravenna Grade School and graduated from Estill County High School.

He was a member and former music director of First Baptist Church in Irvine. He taught Sunday Scool and

He teaches a Sunday School class for senior adults money for their organization at the church he now attends by picking up roadside litter. in Lexington. Their ages The group must register at range from 71 to 90 years old.

When he retires, Cole plans to visit with some of his class members who have become shut-ins and cannot the time was right to retire get out. A few have even gone to assisted living.

"This is my hometown," and uncertainty of the public he states. "I own a farm here in this county."

KSP arrests Reynolds

Continued from Page 1

She allegedly confirmed that she took the items and contents into the residence.

with trafficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense, greater than or equal to two grams of methamphetamine, tampering with physical evidence, and possession of a handgun by a convicted

The first and third charges are Class C felonies. If Leach has scheduled for her convicted, Reynolds could to return to court for a preyears on each charge. Tam- 4. pering with physical evidence is a Class D felony, punishable by one to five years in prison.

During the second search of the residence, KSP reported they confiscated US currency in a black glove, pending.

a purse, and a black purse, along with suspected meth on digital scales.

KSP also reports they Reynolds was charged confiscated a large amount of suspected meth in a blue cooler, pills in the cooler, a pistol, and three heat sealed bags with suspected meth residue. Reynolds was arraigned > in Estill District Court on Sept. 27. She pled not-guilty to all three charges. District Judge William be sentenced to five to ten liminary hearing on October Reynolds' bail was set at $5,000 cash. She was lodged in the Three Forks Regional Jail at Beattyville.

Court records add that she was arrested on a new offense while she had a case

Two are hurt in Bypass wreck were injured Saturday during a single vehicle wreck on Joseph Proctor Bypass. The collision was investigated by Deputy Chris Coffey.

The report states that Ryan Freeman of Burgess Lane, Irvine was traveling on the Bypass towards the Winchester Road in a 1996 Toyota pickup.

It adds that as Freeman driving under the influence came across the bridge, the

A driver and his passenger vehicle crossed over into the other lane and went off the road. It struck a guard rail before flipping into the opposing lane.

> Freeman and his passenger were both transported to Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital.

The truck received very severe damages.

Coffey cited Freeman for Man injured in Sept. 25 wreck

Court Security Officer injured Sept. 25 during a stop. His pickup truck, a Highway 1209 and McKee through the intersection Road (Highway 89).

> states that Gary W. Stanley of Nicholasville was traveling on Highway 1209. He the intersection.

The investigating deputy, James Marshall, said vere damages.

A Nicholasville man was that Stanley was unable to wreck at the intersection of 2000 Dodge Dakota went and struck a high way sign The collision report before striking an earthan embankment and a wooden Stanley was transported did not see the stop sign at to Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital.

His vehicle sustained se-

Nazarene youth assist in Estill and allowed them to shower need. at the camp. Meals were Nazarene Church.

Continued from Page 1 money raised will provide She added that Aldersgate spiritual, physical, and eco-Camp was very generous nomic needs for those in Brad Salyers, youth pasprovided to the large group tor at Catlettsburg Southside, by members of the Ravenna said that everyone they met in Estill County was kind During the weekend the and grateful, and he wished group raised $1,200 for Ap- they could've done more for palachian Reachout. The the community. .