Inning Back Signee Travis Tisdale "One Of Those Players Every Coach Wants"

by Larry Vaught

his turn for a chance to He's friendly, respectplay at Kentucky, but ful, a great student, and perhaps the most under appreciated Kentucky football signee by UK fans was Georgia running back he's someone who can Travis Tisdale.

Tisdale is a four-star recruit from Lowndes High School in Valdosta, Ga. ESPN rated him as one of smile to complement his the nation's top 300 players and had him at the No. 18 running back nation- to learn next year from ally. Rivals.com rated him as the No. 11 all-purpose back nationally. He led Class 7-A with 1,903 yards Chris Rodriguez. rushing and 21 touchdowns on 217 carries as a Chris and Kavosiey and senior before picking UK A.J. going into the year. over Penn State, Nebraska, Ole Miss and others.

runner. He makes contact with defenders and uses his strength to gain additional yards," said Shane Stoops said. "But Kavosiey Thomas of the Valdosta Daily Times. "He's also accepting of taking on multiple roles. He played defensive back his senior season at Lowndes and was a return specialist felt like we could just go also."

He caught 14 passes this point in this class." for 130 yards last season, returned two kickoffs for is a four-star player as touchdowns and had 21 physical, fast and versatackles as a corner back. tile as Tisdale. He finished his career the SEC that eventually go to the NFL would be good for him. He also said he knows he needs to gain weight, one reason Thomas believes a redshirt year would benefit Tisdale.

Thomas wasn't surprised Kentucky was able to sign Tisdale because of the "positive reaction" he had to UK coach Mark Stoops.

"He's one of those players every coach wants. He has a positive attitude and He might have to wait remarkable work ethic. has a personality everyone wants to be around," Thomas said. "As a player, break free for a touch-The 5-9, 165-pound down at any moment. If people get to know him a little bit, they'll like his personality. He has a great personality."

He will also be able junior running back A.J. Rose and redshirt freshmen Kavosiey Smoke and

"We felt very good with You heard me talk about it throughout the year, we "He's an aggressive really wanted to see those guys, but when you have Benny (Snell) and A.J., it's hard to get to those guys," and Chris, when you did see them you saw the talent that was there and the maturity and how physical they are. They've got some speed. So definitely with one running back at Especially when that one

"He (Tisdale) rings just

Tight end C.J. Conrad is one of the players recruiting coordinator Vince Marrow knows helped change the direction of UK football and will be hard to replace next year along with a lot of teammates. (Jeff Houchin Photo)

home run-type hitter. I (running backs) room with A.J., Kavosiey and Chris and you have four dynamic running backs that are really going to be fun to work with this fall." * * *

Kentucky signee Tyrese Maxey's mother, Denyse, said there was one thing about UK coach John Calipari that really impressed her.

"We felt like the time we had spent with Cal, he was sincere. For me to 17 year old go to Cal is huge. I am such a Mama Bear," she said. "I felt like him.

but get a little emotional when he thinks about the fans are going to remember for a long, long time. Some of the seniors were signed in 2014 and redshirted a year. The other seniors were part of the 2015 signing class that Marrow predicted four years ago could help make UK football special.

even consider letting my Mike Edwards, Darius School in Houston where West, even though he her teams won 125 gets criticized a little bit, games, gave UK women's but Dorian Baker has re-Cal would take care of ally won some really big big addition for next year games for us here. I can go when she transferred "He never lied to us. He down the line with Josh from Texas to UK. is not always going to be Allen, C.J. Conrad, George easy on him and he told us Asafo-Adjei, Bunchy Stall- the 3-point contest at the that. He didn't make the ings, all five of the defen- McDonald's All-American 28), Georgia (Oct. 19) and promises or say some of sive backs," Marrow said. Game in 2017, was the Vanderbilt (Nov. 16). the things other coaches "These were guys that we top-ranked point guard did to make us feel good. said we're going to win in the 2017 recruiting terested UK's non-confer-"In our opinion, he was some games with, and class but averaged just 2.8 ence opponents in 2020 honest. He said he would you start seeing it imme- points and 7.6 minutes will be Eastern Michigan, behard on him and get on diately with the '15 class per game her freshman Kent State, Eastern Illihim. Cal said there would in their true freshman year at Texas. She played nois and Louisville while "Here's time. That is kind of per- thing, they were true four- nine minutes. son I want to grow my year seniors, I'm talking son into the next stage of about the '15 class, so life. We did not want him we did look at it and say was in high school. We reto just grow as player, but we can do really do some cruited her, and we got to also as a man. We just felt damage with these guys know her and her family, and do not know about and win some games. so there was some famil-Denise Maxey also said Now, I knew we were iarity there, a prior relaclose to beating Florida. I about her son that should thought we should have helped her feel comfortdone it in '14 when we got able," Mitchell said. "She robbed down there, and and her family are highthen I thought we should character people. That's have done it the next year important to us, and we when they came here, but then we took a back when gest stages. I always ask we went down there and got our teeth kicked in basketball.' He just seems down as guys that really changed Mark Stoops' program and changed the culture because I'm going ball well. She can get to to tell you, when you go places in the SEC, you better have some dawgs. We say dawgs or goons. You better have some dudes room to grow. Good stubecause you're going to dent, good person, good get ate up quick." Marrow still remembers when former South Carolina coach Steve Spurrier said Kentucky finally looked "better than their the second semester of ally appreciative of the uniforms" after playing the 2019-20 season. UK." say was that it ain't these Patterson to our program that spot, he needs to be pipsqueaks coming out and cannot wait to get in there making plays for Kentucky and to get to there no more, guys that her on campus," UK head us, hopefully, for years to play in the state where don't look like SEC play- coach Matthew Mitchell come," Green Bay quarers," Marrow said. "We said. "Chasity is an ath- terback Aaron Rodgers knew in '14 or '15 that letic guard with incred- on former UK star Randall would be the class that ible play-making abilities Cobb.

was hard, but we did it."

Those players helped players Kentucky is losing UK have three straight games in high school. off this year's team that winning seasons and go did so many things UK to three straight bowl games. They'll also be re- looking ahead and thinkmembered as the team that ended the 31-year losing streak to Florida — by winning at Florida.

2017 McDonald's All-American who scored 3,177 points in her ca-"You're talking about reer at North Shore High coach Matthew Mitchell a

Patterson, who won another and scored six points in will be Louisiana-Mon-"She's a player that I got to know when she tionship, so I think that just love the way she handles herself. "She's very quick, very "But yes, they will go her speed as a great weapon, and we value speed. We love players that have speed. She can handle the the rim for a quick guard. She's got a nice pull-up. She can make the 3. program." Patterson can practice this semester but will not be eligible to play until team when he is on the "What he was trying to cited to welcome Chasity up and beat him out of Recruiting coordinator we said we should win on both ends of the court. think you put him in that Vince Marrow can't help the East. The vision, that She's a high-energy player who possess a winning pedigree having won 125

> Just in case you are ing about making plans for Kentucky's 2019 football season, the Wildcats will have eight home games — four Southeast-Chasity Patterson, a ern Conference games and four non-conference matchups. Kentucky has home games with Toledo (Aug. 31), Eastern Michigan (Sept. 7), Florida (Sept. 14), Arkansas (Oct. 12), Missouri (Oct. 26), Tennessee (Nov. 9), UT Martin (Nov. 23) and Louisville (Nov. 30). Kentucky plays at Mississippi State (Sept. 21), South Carolina (Sept. Also in case you are in in one game this season in 2021 the opponents roe, Akron, Chattanooga and Louisville.

Lowndes High School.

with 45 rushing touch- a little bit something difdowns, the best ever at ferent," Gran said. "This guy's a track guy. He's Tisdale told Thomas probably a 10.6 (second on signing day that he in the 100-meter dash) thought playing against a kid. Reminds you a little "lot of big-time players" in bit of a Boom Williams be times our son might hit year. a brick wall from time to comfortable with him." there is one other thing help him at Kentucky.

Shane Thomas of the Valdosta Daily Times says running back Travis Tisdale -- shown with UK coach Mark Stoops -- is an "aggressive runner" who can take on "multiple roles." (Twitter Photo)

Denyse Maxey felt like UK coach John Calipari "would take care" of her son, Tyrese, and felt he was was special." "sincere" during the recruiting process.

"Tyrese loves the spotlight. The bigger the stage, the more he wants to perform," she said. "He has always shined on the bighim if he gets nervous and he'll say, 'Mom, it's just to enjoy and embrace any situation. I think Kentucky fans will really like him."

Tyrese Maxey played three games at Marshall County at the Kentucky Lake Showcase last weekend and his father, Tyrone, was impressed with everything about the event. "What a great facility for basketball," Tyrone Maxey, the player's father and an assistant coach on the team, said. "We were reoffer to just get to play in Kentucky. Kentucky fans have been great from the day Tyrese committed to he'll be playing next year

Ouote of the Week: "We are working folks NBA life. We are trying to learn what we can. We just have a kid who has a dream and wants to pursue it but at times just thinking about it scares me," UK signee Tyrese Maxey's mother, Denyse, on a possible NBA career for her son. Quote of the Week fast, very athletic, can use 2: "I do feel like at this point I know what I am doing and can almost self correct my mistakes because the coaches have taught me so much. I can remember as a freshman thinking the seniors were so much older, but now as "She certainly has some a senior I do not feel that old," Kentucky catcher Jenny Schapper on lookplayer, good fit for our ing ahead to her senior season.

Quote of the Week 3: "We're a better football field, because he's the best slot guy we have. Un-"We are extremely ex- til somebody can jump