

Estill County Engineers junior guard Joe Benton reached his 1,000 points milestone on Tuesday, January 8, 2019 against district opponent Owsley County Owls. He later scored 24 points against Powell, 22 points against Montgomery, 33 points against Lee, and 29 points against Breathitt. Joe also has over 500 career assists. (Photo courtesy of Lisa Short Webb)

Estill County Middle School Engineers cheerleaders, left to right, front: Aleya Bingham, Lauren Hardy, Kennedy Gabbard, Hailey Richardson, Marlee Isaacs. Back: Marlo Puckett, Madison Goosey, Alyssa Cox, Samara Rawlins, Emma Bowen, Vana Newton, Kyla Covey. Coaches: Samantha Rawlins and Laura Freeman.

Congratulations to Estill student Hannah Parks who received the Zone 3 Kentucky Fairs and Horse Show's "Scholarship Award" for the Estill County Agricultural Fair.

Hardy Oil presented the Estill County High School Athletic Department with the 1st Quarter check in the amount of $1,633.50 from funding generated by the "Engineer Pump" at H&H Fuels located at 125 Richmond Road in Irvine. Purchasing gas from the pump donates a percentage of every gallon sold back to the Estill County High School Engineers athletic program. Left to right are board member Sheila Samples, principal Chris Winkler, athletic director Margaret Wood, Michael Hardy and superintendent Jeff Saylor.

Estill County Middle School 7th Grade, left to right: Coach Seth Horn, Kyler Chaney, Noah Freeman, Canyon Hix, Caden Arvin, Peyton Riddell, Parker Maybrier, Hayden Woolery, Taylor Stewart, and Jacob Smith.

ECMS 8th Grade, left to right: Coach Seth Martin, Jacob Neal, Carter McDonald, Tyler Brewer, Aaron Williams, Ethan Henry, Austin Richardson, Thomas Forehand, Kenny Dell Rose, and Landon Coomer.

Congratulations to Anna E. Smith, a freshman at the University of Pikeville majoring in Chemistry and was recently honored and commended for superior scholastic achievement for the Fall Semester, 2018.

Estill County Middle School 6th Grade, left to right, front: Logan Friend, Rylan Brown, Mason Griggs, Casey Chaney, Berkley Hardy, Bryce Brinegar. Back: Coach Trent Singleton, Hayden Fletcher, Jax Niece, Leighton Gross, Levi Beckler, Mason McLean, Emmitt Bowen, and Coach Josh England.