Maudie's Naughties

Relatives

A couple drives down a country road for several miles, not saying a word. An earlier discussion had led to an argument and neither of them wants to concede their position. As they pass a barnyard of mules, goats and pigs, the husband asks sarcastically, "Relatives of yours?"

"Yep," the wife replies, "In-laws."

Getting Married

A senior citizen says to his eighty-year old buddy:

'So I hear you're getting married?' 'Yep!'

'Do I know her?' 'Nope!'

'This woman, is she good looking?' 'Not really.'

'Is she a good cook?' 'Naw, she can't cook too well.'

'Does she have lots of money?' 'Nope! Poor as a church mouse.'

'Well, then, is she good in bed?' 'I wouldn't know.'

'Why in the world do you want to marry her then?'

'Because she can still drive!'

No Gentlemen Here

A pretty woman, carrying a lot of bags from a shopping spree, is walking across the mall parking lot when all of a sudden a strong wind lifts her skirt.

Junior and Howard are standing nearby and just stare and smile.

The woman snaps at them, "Well, I can see that you're no gentlemen!"

Junior replies, "And I can see you ain't one, neither!"

Henry the Hypnotist

Henry the Hypnotist has been banned from the nursing home. It was entertainment night and Henry declared, "I'm here to put you into a trance; I intend to hypnotize each and every member of the audience."

The excitement is almost electric as Henry takes a beautiful antique pocket watch from his coat, "I want you each to keep your eye on this antique watch. It's a very special watch. It's been in my family for six generations."

He begins to swing the watch gently back and forth while quietly chanting, "Watch the watch, watch the watch, and watch the watch..."

The crowd is mesmerized as the watch sways back and forth, light gleaming off its polished surface. Hundreds of pairs of eyes follow the swaying watch, until, suddenly, it slips from the hypnotist's finger and falls to the floor, shattering into a hundred pieces.

"Oh, crap..." says the Hypnotist.

It took three days to clean up the mess.

Defense Argument

One night, an 87-year-old woman comes home from Bingo to find her 92-year-old husband in bed with another woman. She becomes violent and ends up pushing him off the balcony of their 20th floor apartment, killing him instantly. Brought before the court on the charge of murder, she is asked if she had anything to say in her own defense.

'Your Honor,' she begins coolly, 'I figured that at 92, if he could do some of the things he was doing, he could fly, too.'

Annual Medical Exam

After his annual exam the doctor says to Pa, 'You appear to be in good health. Do you have any medical concerns you would like to ask me about?'

'In fact, I do,' replies Pa 'After being intimate I am usually hot and sweaty; and then, after I am intimate the second time, I am usually cold and chilly.'

Later, after examining Ma, the doctor tells her: 'Your husband has an unusual concern. He claims that he is usually hot and sweaty after being intimate the first time, and then cold and chilly after the second time. Do you know why?'

'Oh that silly,' Ma replies. 'That's because the first time was in July and the second time was in January.'

Prescription For Viagra

An old man goes into a pharmacy to fill a prescription for some Viagra.

'Can I have the tablets cut in quarters?'

'I can cut them for you' says the pharmacist 'but a quarter tablet will not give much results'

'I'm 71' says the old man. 'I'm not interested in romance, I just want enough to keep from peeing in my slippers.'

Poor Excuse

A married man is having an affair with his secretary. It lasts all day and, exhausted, they fall asleep and wake up after 8 p.m. The man hurriedly dresses and tells his lover to take his shoes outside and rub them in the grass and dirt. He puts on his shoes and drives home.

"Where have you been?" his wife demands.

"I can't lie to you," he replies, "I'm having an affair with my secretary. It lasted all afternoon."

She looks down at his shoes and says, "You lying jerk! You've been playing golf!"

The Womb And the Wall

The word "womb" in Hebrew means protection from harm, compassion. The womb is where the baby develops until mature enough for birth. The womb is a "wall" designed by God to protect babies until it's time to come into the outside world.

I don't care what people say, a baby is a baby at conception. How do I know this?

Jeremiah 1:5 (KJV),

"Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations."

The baby is supposed to be safe behind this wall called the womb. The baby has no other protection than the wall. The baby SHOULD be safe behind this wall.

Now, changing gears a bit, I am going to talk about the wall on the American southern border. The country is somewhat divided by the border-wall talk. I hear, "build the wall." I hear, "the wall is stupid, we need to let everyone in." I hear, "the wall is immoral the poor little kids will die."

I have never been to the border so I really don't know what it's like. I have read articles about how badly the ranchers are having it on the border. I have seen pictures that our government put out about what's happening at the border. The signs say it is dangerous enter at your own risk.

I have never been to the border, so I did the next best thing. I talked to somebody who worked on the border. His job was trying to stop sex trafficking and drugs. The "nice people" crossing the border killed a couple of his buddies and left him for dead. Luckily he lived.

Here is what he told me. He said there are a lot of sick people in the sex traffic trade. These sick people like little kids. He said it is too easy to smuggle kids in from our porous border for the sex trade. The trafficking is going into America and going out of America.

He said a lot of really bad people are coming in from the South. These people are sex traffickers, terrorist, MS13, and drug cartel. These people do not value life and don't care to kill you.

He said a wall is needed to help prevent little kids from being put into sex trafficking. It would help slow the extremely bad people from getting into here. It would direct people to a port of entry.

Now to tie this together. A wall is for protection; whether it's a wall on the border or the womb. A wall is for safety. The left does not want a wall on the border. The left does not care about the baby behind the wall called a womb. I never thought I would see the day when people would applaud baby murder.

Evil is becoming good and good is becoming evil. People in our country are happy about baby murder (abortion) and want to do nothing to protect us from evil on our border. I don't understand their thinking.

My stance is anti-abortion at any stage of a babies time in the womb. Build the wall to protect us from evil. I think God still has a hedge of protection around America but we are losing it, little by little. Christians, it's time to take a stand for Jesus and our country. There are lost people we need to talk to before it's everlasting too late,

Until next week get out and enjoy God's creation!
