Gilbert McIntosh Jr.

Gilbert "Cowboy" McIntosh Jr. died Saturday, November 30, 2019.

He was a native of Estill County; he lived in Ohio and many years in Florida but called Kentucky home. He was born September 4, 1937, the son of the late Alice and Gilbert McIntosh, Sr.

Cowboy was a proud sailor in the United States Navy, serving on the USS Randolph, USS Independence, and on the first crew to sail the USS Kitty Hawk. He had many jobs through the years. He ran a doughnut shop, several dry cleaners, and many restaurants, including Cowboy's in Ravenna with his brother Ferrell. He loved working on old cars and trucks with his buddies Larry and Dougie. It was his favorite thing to do. He also worked for Jimison Steel and worked on a horse farm with his friend Ms. Jane before retiring and returning to Kentucky. Although he never slowed down, he had a lot more time to yard sale and enjoy his beloved Bluegrass music.

He is survived by two daughters, Debbie (and his buddy Mike) Moran, and Kelly Barnett (Tony); his best friend Sam Tipton, and his cousin who can do anything, Jackie Macy; his brother Theodore; and sisters, Nancy, Judy, and Faye.

Mr. McIntosh was preceded in death by his brothers, Jerry and Ferrell; his sisters, Rertha, Joan, and Winnie Mae; and his long-time friend, Red Williams.

The family wants to thank the staff at Cambridge Place for the love and care of Daddy, and the friendship and support for Debbie and Mike.

Services will be held Wednesday, December 4, 2019, at 2:00 p.m. with visitation for family from 12:00 Noon to 1:00 p.m. and friends from 1 to 2 p.m. Burial will follow in the Oakdale Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers the family requests donations to the Alzheimer's Association.

Life's Journey

Are we sure our lamps are ready?
We must have a bountiful supply.
If not, when we are just halfway Home,
We may find that our lamps have gone dry.

If our oil should burn out on the journey,
The way of darkness will appear.
A light with no oil gives no light at all,
And darkness only leads to despair.

Our light must always be burning,
And always be full to the brim.
Some wayward soul may be struggling,
And you may be able to help him.

Make sure your supply is sufficient,
Don't let your lamp burn dry.
The journey may be longer than we expected,
But we can make it Home if we try.

Some lonely sinner may be watching,
Needing a light to guide him Home.
He may be reaching out to someone,
And you can help him to journey on.
