Panic! Panic! Lost Phone!

How many out there can live without your phone? I use my phone everyday about every hour it seems like. I use my phone for email, alarm clock, watch, timer, internet, flashlight, social media, news, weather, games, coupons, driving, selling goods, buying goods, music, text messaging, and yes, a phone. I am not sure how we lived before cell phones!

Do you feel anxiety when your phone is at 2% and no charger around? Have you ever about wrecked trying to get to the phone that fell between seats? Have you ever done the pocket pat down when you can't find your phone? I could go on and on. I am guilty of all I do believe!

When I lose my phone, life shuts down until I find it. I get fussy to everyone around me. It's panic time if I don't find it quick. I start saying, someone call my phone to see if I can hear it ringing. My heart starts racing. The thought of missing an important email or phone call. Then I find it, and all is well again in the world!

The other day, I jumped on the side-by-side to head to the bottoms to check cows. I stuck my phone in my jacket pocket. I rode through a lot of nasty mud holes. Went up some big hills and covered a lot of open ground. I finally made it home, got off the side-by-side, and you guessed it, no phone!

Panic! Fussing! I thought my phone could be anywhere on the farm. I could imagine it in the mud hole I almost got stuck in. I bet it fell out in the mud and I ran over it.

I headed back over the hill in search of the phone. I had to find it! Well, good news, I hadn't gone very far and there lay this beautiful piece of technology, unhurt. You would think all is right with the world again! No, it wasn't right. God just gave me one of those Spiritual Whoopins!

You see, I thought about the most important thing I own! Do I treat this most important thing I own the same way I treat my phone? Do I look at the most important thing I own daily? Do I panic if I can't find the most important thing I own? Does life shut down when I can't find the most important thing I own. This most important thing I own makes the world right!

Well, I couldn't answer those question well. I probably would get a D minus to an F plus if I was graded. Spiritual Whoopin time! You see this most important thing I own is my Bible! God's Holy Word. I can live without a phone, but I can't live without God's Holy Word! Thanks be to Jesus for the Spiritual Whoopins!

2 Timothy 3:16-17 (KJV)
All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

Until next week get out and enjoy God's creation!

State Bird
You don't have to live in New Hampshire to attract Purple Finches into your backyard. Roger Tory Peterson described the males as a "sparrow dipped in raspberry juice." The female has no red at all. Attract purple finches to your yard with black oil sunflower seed or white millet.
