Saul in Jerusalem

Acts 9:29-31

And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus. Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were multiplied.

Seeds of Hope

"Be careful what you wish for - it just might come true!" is a saying most of us have grown up with. It comes with no guarantee or assurance that what we ask for is what we will get. In fact, according to some, it may be the exact opposite and result in problems.

Wishing is imagining something in our minds that we want to come true - believing that our lives will be better or filled with happiness or joy or riches. It is wanting our lives to be more fulfilling or better or happier without our having to do anything or making any effort or changes.

But wishing is different from hoping - especially the hope that believers have in God. We can have unflinching and unwavering hope in God because He has done everything He has ever said He would do. There is no room for any doubt in Him or any of His promises. They are well documented and are a testimony to the fact that God is faithful and can be trusted to keep His Word.

God's faithfulness, the psalmist reminds us, is so predictable that it has become "a law in Israel." And this testimony of God's faithfulness is to be passed on by fathers to their children so they put their hope in God and "never forget His deeds."

God wants fathers to teach their children that hope does not come from politicians or policies. Nor does He want fathers to teach their children that they are to place their hope in acquiring wealth or worldly goods. And He does not want them to teach their children to place their hope in the knowledge or skills or talents they possess.

Dangerous Religions

by BOB CASEY, preacher
Cornerstone Church of Christ
70 Bond Street at Camp Avenue in West Irvine

Someone once said unto me, 'You sure make it hard on us.' Knowing the gist of his meaning, for he was preaching for a denominational church; he was referring to the sermons to which I was preaching. My reply was, 'I am not trying to make it hard on you but to warn you that what you are following may not take you to Heaven.' Then, I also reminded him that according to Matthew 7:21-24, our Lord, on the Day of Judgment, will make it harder on you than I ever could.

So, I want all to know that the reason that I strongly declare only what the Bible says concerning salvation -- baptism for the remission of sins, the name of the church, the only accepted worship -- more, is because I want to please the Lord and try to go to Heaven when life is over here. The Apostle Paul wrote in 1 Timothy 4:16, saying to the young preacher, "Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee."

So, this is my motivation when I preach the Gospel. This is what I know and see in our religious world. Jesus says in Matthew 15:8-9, "This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men."

So, this is where all secular religions are erring. This we must not do! In Luke 6:46, Jesus says, "And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which

I say?"

So then, we can clearly see that our Lord has his plan for man's redemption and men have their own plan. But man's way will not be honored at the Judgment Seat of Jesus.

Someone who was willingly ignorant of the Lord's Word, said, 'You go to your church, and I will to mine, and we will all end up in Heaven at the very same time.' Friends, according to our Lord, this is very foolish thinking, for our Lord says in John 14:6, "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." In Matthew 23:1-3, it speaks of the religious leaders of that day, saying, "Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples, Saying, The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not." Then in Verse 13, the very sad epitaph upon them, "But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering (attempting) to go in."

Close with these two verses. 2 Corinthians 5:10-11, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God..."

This is why I strongly preach. I know what is coming upon this ungodly world. In Luke 14:23, Jesus says, "Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled." This is what I preach!

Sincerely, Bob Casey, (1-859-369-4165), local

THE ILLUSTRATED BIBLE

...He began to curse and swear, saying, "I do not know the Man!"
Immediately a rooster crowed.
And Peter remembered the word of Jesus who had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny Me three times."
So he went out and wept bitterly.

Green Mountains Run Wild

I know you're resting beneath, where green mountains run wild.
And you'll find me where brooks flow swiftly by, and crystal waters never run dry.
I believe you'll find me resting beside the still magnolia vines.
And where the sun kisses the morning dew, I know that wild fern grows for you.
I can feel cold wind blowing by; Do you feel the chill of these tired old eyes.

In the silence of the day, you'll find me praying there, and these old tears I cry for you.
I know you're listening closely, you'll hear the Rock of Ages sung there.
Someday, I will follow you where the songbirds sing forever, And you'll find me in Paradise.
When it's time to say my final good-byes, Don't shed sad, old tears for me now and cry.
This is the place I'm finally resting, a place of peace and joy; No death will ever knock at our door anymore.
As I look out over yonder where crystal waters never run dry; This old vessel I once used, I have no use for now.
I'm home now where green mountains run wild. I'll never feel any more pain, only joy and peace you'll find there.
This, It's my final resting place, where crystal waters flow swiftly by.
In the green mountain I lay still now. I know you're resting where green mountains run wild. That's where you'll find me now.
We're missing you and love you.
