Estill County High School student Summer Evans is named 2019 Rogers Scholar

The Center for Rural Development has selected Estill County High School student Summer Evans to participate in the 2019 Rogers Scholars program.

Evans will join 66 high school students from Southern and Eastern Kentucky this summer for the 22nd annual Rogers Scholars youth leadership program.

Rogers Scholars, The Center's flagship youth program, was established through the vision of U.S. Congressman Harold "Hal" Rogers (KY-05) that "no young person should have to leave home to find his or her future."

The intensive one-week summer program provides valuable leadership skills and exclusive college scholarship opportunities for high school students in 45 Kentucky communities to build their skills as the region's next generation of business and entrepreneurial leaders.

"Rogers Scholars is an amazing program designed to give our youth a leg up in expanding their leadership skills while exposing them to new and creative ideas for our region of Southern and Eastern Kentucky," said Lonnie Lawson, President and CEO of The Center for Rural Development.

Each graduate earns potential access to exclusive college scholarship opportunities from some of the state's top-ranked colleges and universities. To be eligible, students have to complete a community service project in their hometown.

The 2019 Rogers Scholars program will be held June 9-14 on the campus of Lindsey Wilson College in Columbia, KY and July 14-19 on the campus of Morehead State University in Morehead, KY. There is no tuition charge to attend the program and lodging and food are provided free of charge to participants.

Evans is the daughter of Tressie Parrott and John Parrott of Irvine, KY.

Since 1998, more than 1,200 high school students from Southern and Eastern Kentucky have graduated from Rogers Scholars. The program provides opportunities for students to apply for scholarships from 19 Kentucky colleges and universities.

For more information about the Rogers Scholars program, contact Allison Cross, community liaison and youth programs coordinator at The Center, at across@centertech.com or call 606-677-6019.

Mountain Mushroom Festival T-Shirts

Rather Be Shroomin! is the theme of the Mountain Mushroom Festival, featured on the 2019 t-shirts modeled by Jay Stevens and his children, at right. The cherry heather (red) color t-shirts are short-sleeve. They are $10 for all sizes from youth small to adult large. The adult 2XL and 3XL sizes are $12. The t-shirts will be for sale in Irvine City Hall, 101 Chestnut Street until Friday, April 26 at noon. The t-shirts will be for sale during the festival in the gazebo/information booth on Broadway.

2019 Window Decorating Contest

MOUNTAIN MUSHROOM FESTIVAL

The Mountain Mushroom Festival committee would like to invite businesses to enter the Window Decorating Contest for the 29th festival the weekend of April 27-28. This is a way to make our community more attractive and show pride to all our visitors!!

Theme: Rather Be Shroomin'

Judging: Criteria used for the judging will include:

- appearance/overall impression
- creativity/originality, composition/spatial arrangement
- use of mushrooms and theme Rather Be Shroomin'

Judging will be done on Monday, April 22 and Tuesday, April 23.

Eligible for Entry: The window decorations may include painting and/or an inside window display and must stay up through the festival weekend. Outside decorations will not be judged.

How to Enter: To enter the contest or offer the use of your window, even if you don't want to decorate it yourself, call Irvine City Hall or Myra Finney, Window Decorating Chairman, at 606 723-4238. Businesses may decorate their own window or ask an individual or organization, such as a church, school youth group or civic organization, to decorate a window. If an organization decorates a window they are responsible for clean-up.

Deadline to Enter: Enter by Friday, April 19 at 4 p.m.

Prizes: Prize money from the Festival Committee and rosettes will be awarded to the top three winners.

- The first place winner will receive $100 and a blue rosette.
- The second place will receive $75 and a red rosette.
- The third place winner will receive $50 and a white rosette.

Prize winners will be photographed for promotion purposes in the local newspapers and on the festival website.
