

Storytime at Estill Library

Rhett Browning, looking at one of his favorite books after Baby&Me on Friday.

Several Wednesday Storytimers looking for the rest of the Easter eggs.

Brisen Marcum during the Baby&Me egg hunt on Friday. (Photos courtesy of Shannon Horn)

ABOVE AND AT RIGHT: The Estill County Lions Club celebrated Earth Day 2019, April 22, with students from South Irvine Preschool Center by planting a Japanese Cherry tree in back of the school. Lions club members also informed students about what Earth Day means to people all around the world and the benefit of trees to our environment. (Photos courtesy of Jeff G. Tate)

Earth Day 2019

Gwen Hager, right, received a certificate for five years of service as a Hospice Care Plus volunteer, pictured here with volunteer coordinator Stefanie Manness.

The Estill County Engineers have been participating in spring ball in preparation for the upcoming football season. Currently there are 35 players on the team and ten of those will be seniors when school starts in August. The football team is expected to grow in number with the incoming Freshmen. The Engineers are coached by Jordan Marcum, Drew Barnett, Russ Swim, and D.T. Boon. (Cathy Daves photo)

Come by and visit with The Real McCoy
 during the Irvine Mountain Mushroom Festival
 ♦ Vendor Booths ♦ Shelf Rentals ♦ Tanning Beds
 ♦ Movies & Games ♦ Vapor Juices ♦ Tan Lotions

Stop by and meet owner Darlene McCoy Tuttle, the 3x great niece of Randolph and Sarah McCoy. She has stories and items all over the store about the Hatfields and McCoy's. Her husband Paul Tuttle says he's not a Hatfield!

(606) 723-4844

5191 Richmond Road, Irvine, KY

On April 6th Estill fisher Brandon Vanderpool and Ross Kearns placed 1st in two different tournaments that were held at Kentucky Lake and Barkley Lake with a total of 18 pounds caught. Vanderpool is a member of the Bass Fishing Team from the Estill County High school and partnered up with Kearns at the last minute in order to participate in the tournaments. (Submitted)