Dolores Frazier Brown

Our beloved mother, Dolores Frazier Brown, passed away on Tuesday, May 14, 2019 into the loving arms of our heavenly father.

She was born on January 2, 1928 in Gallup, Kentucky, to John Frazier, Sr., and Louise Shivel Frazier. She attended Gallup Elementary School from ages 4 to the age of 7. During that time, she lived with her family in an old log cabin in Gallup. At about 8 years old, and for the next several years, she moved with her family to various locations; such as Sciotoville, Ohio; Chapman, Kentucky; Martin, Kentucky; and Auxier, Kentucky; graduating early (at the age of 15) as a senior from Auxier High School. At age 17, Dolores went to cosmetology school in Paintsville, where she traveled to school each day and back by train. At age 18, she took a teaching position at Lost Creek (George's Creek), Kentucky, which was a one room school house for grades 1st through 8th. It was during this time that she met the love of her life, Herman Brown, who had just returned from the war.

Dolores married Herman Lee Brown in Kentucky on March 22, 1947. They were married 53 years before Herman's death in February 2000.

She was a devout Baptist; attending church in California, Oregon and Kentucky before her health declined and she was no longer able to attend. Her children were blessed to have been raised in church, where Dolores could often be found teaching Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, or involved wherever she was needed.

Dolores always loved life, people, and her family. Her mother gave her the nickname "Spitfire". She was an avid and very competitive player of table games, the card game Rook being one of her favorites. She also enjoyed word games such as Scrabble and Upwards, and her favorite TV game show was Jeopardy. She also loved camping, fishing, and the outdoors, and in later years she particularly enjoyed fishing on her grandson's (Ronnie and Genia's) property.

Dolores Brown

She was preceded in death by her parents, John Frazier Sr., and Louise Shivel Frazier; and one brother, Donald Frazier.

Mrs. Brown is survived by her sister, Virginia Dixon of Ohio; a brother, Johnny Frazier of Florida; one son, Herman Brown (Rosemary) of Myrtle Creek, Oregon; a daughter, Linda McKinney of Irvine, a daughter Joyce McKinney (Jimmy) of Vancouver, Washington; a daughter Anita Veik (Ron) of Sutherlin, Oregon; a daughter Teresa Baird (Shane) of Sutherlin, Oregon, as well as 16 grandchildren, 28 great grandchildren, and six great grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Gallup-Chapman United Methodist Church, P O Box 763, Louisa, KY 41230.

Memorial services will be held at a later date.

Warren F. Toler Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
