Girl Scout Troop #7182 starts Silver Award project at Estill County Animal Shelter

Girl Scout Troop #7182 has started a Silver Award project at the Estill County Animal Shelter. They have put in two flower beds and a walkway. They also plan to put a small flower bed around the flag pole at the Estill

County Road Department and one at the county park. The Silver Award is the highest award a cadette can receive in Girl Scouts.

The Troop would like to especially thank Estill County Judge/Executive Donnie Watson, Estill

County road foreman Brad Goolman, Roy Fowler, Eagle Scout Dalton Goolman and Animal Control director Tommy Mullen. Thanks also to Meade's Do-It Center and Lowe's of Winchester for the donation of the supplies.

Britney Mason, Farrah fowler, Hannah Goolman, Catlyn Gregory and Madeline Prychodko show off the flowers.
