Sing the praises of the LORD, you his faithful people; praise his holy name. For his anger lasts only a moment, but his favor lasts a lifetime; weeping may stay for the night, but rejoicing comes in the morning.

Those Under Indictment

by BOB CASEY, preacher
Cornerstone Church of Christ
70 Bond Street at Camp Avenue in West Irvine

Most of you know what the word 'indictment' means already, but to clarify this statement, it simple means, 'those who have been charged with a crime.' I ask, 'Can one be under an indictment, spiritually speaking, even though he may not have broken any of man's laws regarding stealing, burglary, robbery, etc. The answer is, 'yes.' In the Gospel of John, 3:18, it says, "He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God."

So, what then, is the major indictment? John 1:7 says John the Baptizer "was sent to bear witness of that Light" (Jesus) that all men through him might believe. Therefore, the conclusion is very clear, any person that does not believe to the point of obedience is under the sentence of eternal destruction. Jesus expresses his mission in this manner in John 6:29, saying, "This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent." Also John 20:31 reveals that the whole of the New Testament is given so that all of mankind can hear and obey the commands of Jesus; and when they do, they are released from the requirements of the indictment. So, instead of death, eternal life can be the result. Notice in Hebrews 5:5-9, through the sufferings of our Lord, he learned just what obedience to the Father was all about, "being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him." So, then, those who refuse are at this present moment under the indictment from God because it is a sin against God, Christ and the Holy Spirit; to fail to acknowledge Jesus as the only Son of God, the Saviour of mankind.

Notice these strong words in Romans 8:1-2, "There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." Therefore, free from the indictment of eternal death.

Again, any sound-thinking person can clearly see and understand that all that have never taken the opportunity to hear the Lord, believe on the Lord, repent of their sins; never to have confessed his name before men and have not been immersed for the forgiveness of their sins, presently remain under this indictment from Heaven. In Matthew 17:15, "... a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him." So, we know for sure that a failure to hear our Saviour will result in the loss of well-being here and in eternity as well. John 5:25 confirms that only the hearers shall live.

What about you, Dear Friend? To whom do you trust, or what are you trusting in? Let me urge you to put your confidence in the one who died and shed his blood for you. Any other or any other thing is not a safe way to live. Your hopes and confidences in any thing else will not remove your name from the indictment of God. There is only one thing that can wipe your slate clean. In Revelations 1:5, John the Revelator said "Unto him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood."

My wish for all is that they are free from the indictment of sin and death, and they can be by obeying our Saviour today. I hope that you will do it.

Meet with us at Cornerstone Church. We will try to do thee good.

Sincerely, Bob Casey, (1-859-369-4165), local

Few of us enjoy going to a dentist. The first words we usually hear are, "Open your mouth wide, please." Most of us from our previous experiences with dentists would rather keep our mouths shut.

When the Psalms were written there were different ways to show favors to individuals. For example, if a king wanted to extend a favor to a guest he would sometimes say, "Open your mouth wide," and then fill it with gems or sweets.

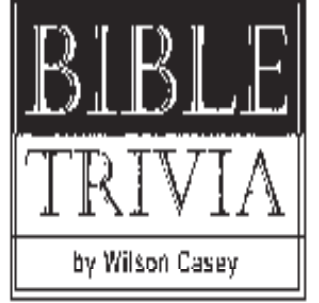

Our King said to us in Psalm 81, "Open wide your mouth and I will fill it!" What an unusual statement. Yet, when we think of it, our King's love is limitless and His might is measureless and His knowledge of our needs is ever on His mind!

What an encouragement to pray. When we pray we open our mouths and express our needs and desires to God. If, when we pray, we are earnest and expect God to hear us and if we have been obedient to His teachings and if in our prayers we are asking Him to bless our requests in a way that will honor Him, surely He will respond to our requests.

God is able and anxious to meet our every need. If we have a loved one who has not accepted His grace, or if we have a need for food on our tables, or if we have a spouse or parent or child who is suffering with a disease that some say is incurable - are all gifts He is willing to grant us. We most never forget that God is able and anxious to hear us and help us if we "open our mouths wide in prayer."
