Library Happenings

Estill Public Library

by Shannon Horn

Hello readers!

May 8th, 2019

Why did the chicken go to the library? To check out a bawk, bawk, bawk. Ok, as terrible as that joke is, I couldn't resist sharing it. We haven't had any chickens in the library recently, but there have been a lot of people in and out this week. I've noticed several of the new books have been checking out rather well! This month is going to be busy because we are building up to Summer Reading, so make sure you are checking in with all that is going on!

Pickin' in the Park

If you haven't heard our Pickin' in the Park concert series has begun once again! We are still hosting these concerts in Rising Park every Tuesday night at 6:30. As I mentioned last week, Michael Stallings performed Tuesday evening. Chris and Jenn Shouse will be performing for us on May 14th and Eddie Hughes will perform the 21st. These concerts are completely free to the public. If it is rainy we will host the concerts in the library meeting room. But hope for beautiful weather, so that we can enjoy the music outdoors!

Teen Book Club

Teen Book Club will be meeting at different times this month. They will be meeting on Monday the 13th and 20th at 4:00. They are going to be making candles to go along with their book Fawkes by Nadine Brandes. This will be so much fun. Katelyn let the teens pick their next book, and even though it isn't what she was expecting they will begin reading Twilight by Stephanie Meyers in June. If you have a Twilight fan this may be a fun time to join book club.

Let's Talk Book Club

I was really happy to have a couple of people come in to talk last week about the book Girl, Wash Your Face by Rachel Hollis. Now remember, with this book club you don't have to read the book in order to come. If you are wanting to find a book that you may like then this may be an option for you. The next Let's Talk will be May 30th at 6:00. We will be talking about Sophie Kinsella's new book, I Owe You One. I have been reading on it and I have to say, it is pretty entertaining. If you have any questions about Let's Talk, call 723-3030.

Summer Reading Programs

Summer Reading is just around the corner. It will be here before we know it. Lesa has put together some really cool programs for the adults and I am super excited about our family and children's programs as well.

Lesla has schedule another blacksmithing workshop for June 15th at 11:00. This is open to the public and we would love to have a nice crowd for the demonstrations. She has also schedule another fly-fishing session for July 27th. This is open to the public as well. If you love to fish this would be a great time to learn a new fishing technique.

We have some great family programs scheduled. I am really excited about the travelling planetarium that we will have. This goes along with our summer reading program theme: A Universe of Stories. There are several others that I will talk about closer to time. Just know that we are really excited to get this started and we have already gotten some of the prizes for giveaways.

We will continue with our regular programs as well during Summer Reading. So if you come to Storytime, LEGO Club, Walk Slim, or any of our other regular programming it will still be going on with all of the other awesome stuff!

I plan on sharing more information about Summer Reading as it gets closer to time. There is so much to share. Just keep reading here or checking with us in the library for more info! Until next week!
