

Kelcie Ross Harris became a member of Irvine Chapter #357, Order Of The Eastern Star in 1959, and was a faithful member until she began having health problems a few years ago. Kelcie was noted for her delicious and beautifully decorated cakes that she always brought to regular meetings and made for special events. Pictured is Janice Bush and Louise Holbrook presenting Mrs. Harris with her 60-year membership pin from the Irvine O.E.S. Chapter. (Photo courtesy of Janice Bush)

Amy Brashear gets Kentucky state award

Amy Brashear

Amy Brashear, the Estill County Foster Care Case Supervisor, was awarded the 2019 Outstanding DCBS (Department of Community Based Services) Award for her outstanding services to Foster Children in the Estill County community. The award is an annual award made by the Kentucky State Citizen Foster Care Review Board. Mrs. Brashear, attends every Interested Party Review Board session with each case worker. Her nomination by the Estill County Board states that, "she knows every case, chapter and verse, and is always able to give us full details about what is happening in the lives of Estill County foster children." The award was presented to Mrs. Brashear by Joan Kleine, a member of the Kentucky State Citizen Foster Care Review Board.

Estill County Lady Engineers players have been chosen to play on the 14th Region All-Star Team. From left to right are Mia Hale, Kaylee Riddell, Amelia Farmer, Neesa West, and Emma Winkle. Kaylee Riddell and Amelia Farmer were named to the Junior/Senior Region All-Star Team. Emma Winkle and Mia Hale- the Futures All-Star Team and Neesa West was named as an alternate. The Futures game is June 18th and the Junior/Senior game is on June 19th. The awards ceremony is on June 18th at 7:00 p.m., all at the Rowan County High School in Morehead. Lucas T. Barnes Graduates from JSU

JACKSONVILLE, AL (05/15/2019)-- Lucas T. Barnes of Irvine, KY, has graduated with a Public Administration degree from Jacksonville State University. Barnes was among the 774 students honored at commencement on May 3, 2019. For the first time, new university provost Dr. Christie Shelton served as mistress of ceremonies. Emily Manasco - who was among the first to receive a bachelor's in respiratory therapy from JSU this spring - served as the student commencement speaker. FedEx executive and JSU alumna Cheryl L. Bevelle-Orange (BS, Computer & Information Systems and Marketing, 1990) provided the keynote address. The bell ringer was Reyna Ramirez, who graduated with a bachelor's in nursing.

Congratulations to all our Graduates! Celebrate With Savings!
