

Two Irvine students are winners in KDA's Poster and Essay Contest

Luke Williams of Irvine was honored as the eighth grade essay co-winner in the Kentucky Department of Agriculture's annual Poster and Essay Contest on June 21 at Whitaker Bank Ballpark in Lexington. Hayden Fletcher, also of Irvine, was the sixth grade essay winner.

Kentucky students were honored for posters and essays that express how Kentucky's agriculture community is working to address hunger during the annual Poster and Essay Contest awards ceremony Friday at Whitaker Bank Ballpark.

Students Submitted Entries on 'Kentucky Farms: Growing Solutions for a Growing World'

"I want to congratulate the winners, who depicted in art and writing how our farmers are helping feed the hungry here in Kentucky and around the world," Kentucky Agriculture Commissioner Ryan Quarles said.

The theme for the contest was "Kentucky Farms: Growing Solutions for a Growing World." Each winner received a $100 check from Kentucky Agriculture and Environment in the Classroom (KyAEC), a meal featuring foods from Kentucky Proud producers, and tickets to the Lexington Legends baseball game against the Greenville (South Carolina) Drive.

Essay winners with their hometowns, schools, and teachers were:

Grade 6 - Hayden Fletcher, Irvine, Estill County Middle School, Mike Flynn

Grade 8 (tie) - Kadyn Murray, Magnolia, FAITH Academics Homeschool Co-op, Amy Moore and Joy Murray; and Luke Williams, Irvine, Estill County Middle School, Mike Flynn

Library Happenings

Estill Public Library

by Shannon Horn

Gooooood morning/afternoon/evening/when-ever you are reading this! It has been another action packed week here at the library and I must say that I am super excited about all that has gone on and all that is coming up! Here is a recap of all things library related!

Traveling Planetarium

These Thursday programs have been so much fun, but let me just tell you, I am a worrier. After looking at the amount of people signed up to come to the planetarium show this last Thursday I was afraid we wouldn't be able to seat everyone! But I am glad to say that we didn't have to turn a single person away! For a program that was only supposed to host 60 people, we held 93!! What a turn out. Everyone really seemed to enjoy it. I sat in for a few minutes and was amazed by the show that they were able to put on in such a small area. I also want to say thank you to our partners that helped with this program. Mary Raider and the Estill Springs Family Resource Center were wonderful to work with and the program wouldn't have been able to come had it not been for their contribution. I would also like to say thank you to the South Irvine Pre-K Center for hosting the planetarium. And last but not least, I would like to thank the community members that showed up and supported the program!

Pickin' in the Park

Believe it or not I'm about to share with you the first two July concerts! Yes, I just said July. I think I might just go ahead and put my Christmas tree up, because it'll be here before we know it! Anyway we have several awesome concerts heading our way this July. July 2nd we will be hosting Jen Richardson and the following week Troy Estes will be performing. I'm hoping this rain will slow down so that we can get back to enjoying the concerts in the park.

Reptile Zoo

On Thursday the 27th we will be hosting the Reptile Zoo. As of right now it looks like the first show at 1:00 is full. Several people have registered on Beanstack for it so we are preparing for a big crowd. We ask that everyone that would like to come register so that we can have an idea of how many are interested in coming. Our space is limited and we don't want to turn people away, so help us help you! The second show with the Reptile Zoo will be at 2:30.

Crafternoon in July

We have some fun Crafternoon sessions in the works for July. Sandy will be back to do some art with us on July 10th. Everyone always has a wonderful time during these sessions and I must say the art that comes from this program is always really good. On the 24th we will have a second program with Diane Johnson. She will be showing us how to make goat lotion this time! If you would like more information about Crafternoon, call 723-3030 and ask for Lesa.

Remember we still have our regular programs going on as well. The WhoDunIt Book Club is meeting July 1st at 5:30 and the Adult Book Club is meeting July the 2nd at 1:30. Storytime is still every Wednesday and Friday at 10:30 for children 5 and under (older siblings are allowed to come sit in too). Our Kid's Craft Time is every Wednesday following our Summer Feeding Program. Teen Game Night, Teen Book Club, and Teen Time are open to kids ages 13-18. If your teen needs to get out of the house for a little while, send them on down here. We have a lot of fun.

If you would like more information about some of our programs just call 723-3030 or check us out on Facebook!

Until next time!

213 TALES

by the late

Michael Dale Profitt

Memories of the late Michael Dale Profitt who lived much of his life on KY-213 and KY-52, now called Furnace Junction, will be continued next week, Wednesday, July 3, 2019 in The Estill County Tribune.

Sheriff's Deputy arrests 2 when checking on driver

Deputy Chris Coffey arrested Earl Peters, 63, of Dry Branch Road on June 19 at the intersection of KY 89 and Dry Ridge Road.

Coffey said he observed a vehicle on the side of the road with the driver slouched over the steering wheel.

He stated there was a warrant for the arrest of Peters.

The citation states that Peters got out of his vehicle, started going through his pockets and throwing things back into the vehicle.

Coffey said he told Peters to stop, and he threw a small metal tube between the seats.

The citation states the tube was located and there was a small crystal rock in the tube. It was suspected meth.

Peters was charged with possession of a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (methamphetamine) and tampering with physical evidence.

The warrant was for a traffic offense.

A passenger in Peters' auto, Wanda Watson, 47, was served with two warrants for traffic offenses.

Deputy Coffey charged her with giving an officer false identification.

The deputy said she gave him her daughter's social security number, but he recognized her.

IPD officer finds over 2 gms meth

Irvine Officer Jason Conrad arrested Michael Shane Bishop, 23, of Eades Drive, Irvine on June 15.

Officer Conrad said that Bishop was traveling south on Richmond Road and the rear license on his vehicle was not illuminated.

He made a traffic stop on Bishop's vehicle on Dark Hollow Road.

The citation states that Bishop appeared to be under the influence.

Bishop was charged with rear license not illuminated, operating motor vehicle under the influence, tampering with physical evidence, and trafficking in a controlled substance, first degree and first offense (methamphetamine).

Officer Conrad confiscated a plastic baggie containing a crystal like substance, suspected to be methamphetamine.

The charge says the suspected meth was equal to or greater than two grams.

Marvin and Betty Wilson, 92, both attended the 100th anniversary of Irvine Free Methodist Church on Sunday. The Wilsons were eight when the church was established and are now living in Richmond.
