

Marching Engineers getting ready for "The Crossing"

by CATHY DAWES
The Estill Tribune

The Marching Engineers have been putting in long hours in preparation for the upcoming season. The band has seen quite a bit of growth over the past few years and is now up to approximately 80 members. Jason Bowles, band director, said that 14 of those members will be seniors this year.

This year's show is titled "The Crossing" and is very symbolic according to Bowles. The performance is about trains and the story line is about the journey of life. Bowles said there will be many train sound effects through the show. Brooklyn Kelley, a senior at ECHS, will be the field commander this year.

Something new that Mr. Bowles said he was excited about this year is that the band will be competing on the national circuit as well as on the state level. He said they will travel to Tennessee to compete and Grand Nationals will be held at the Lucas Oil Stadium in Indiana.

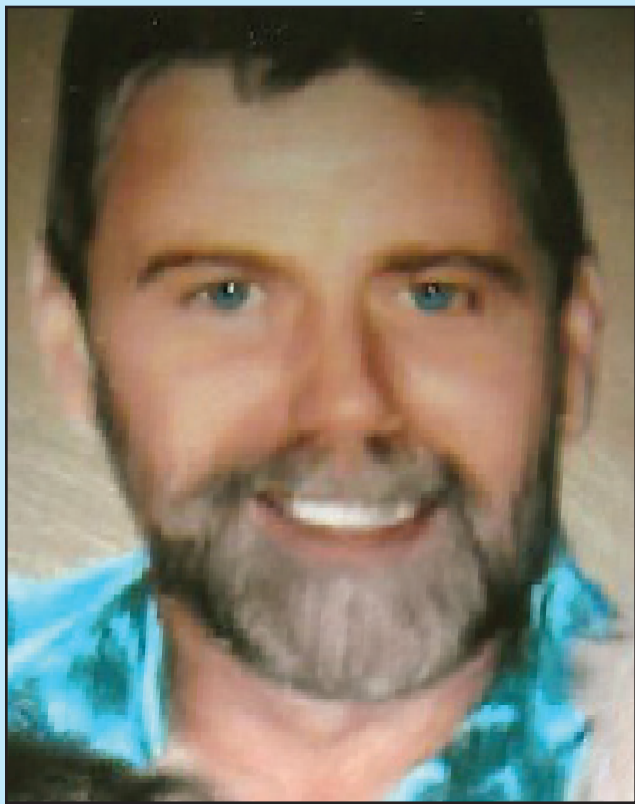

The band is currently practicing behind Estill Springs due to the construction taking place at the high school. They are practicing 12 hours a day in hopes of making this one of the best shows yet.

Gabby Calvin of the woodwind staff stated, "It's really a great show and the kids have worked super hard over the past week."

A Face in the Crowd

I thought I saw you in a crowd,
They walked like you, their stance was proud.
The hair the same, their profile too;
I really thought it could be you.
Then I remembered you were gone,
My heart fell flat as I walked on.
I see your face wherever I go;
Guess I just thought that you should know.
Still hear your laugh and see your smile;
Though you've been gone for quite a while.
I miss you more than words can say,
Wish it had been you that I saw today.

Sadly missed by Mom, Lisa, Eddie,
Stevie & Selena and family
